Election Case No. 9 of 1924.

Khan Bahadur Abdus Salam
versus
Maulvi Rafiuddin Ahmed
} of Jessore town.

Report.

This is an election petition of Khan Bahadur Abdus Salam against the election of Maulvi Rafiuddin Ahmed to the Bengal Legislative Council from the North Jessore Muhammadan Constituency. The petitioner and the respondent were the only two candidates from the constituency. The respondent was elected by a majority of 38. The allegation of the petitioner was that on 76 ballot papers the votes were recorded in his favour but they were improperly rejected by the Returning Officer on the ground that they were not marked with the secret official seal indicative of the Bengal Legislative Council. It was asserted and it has not been denied that by some mistake or other these ballot papers had been stamped with the official secret seal indicative of the Legislative Assembly instead of the official secret seal indicative of the Bengal Legislative Council.

The petition of election was published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 6th February and was fixed for hearing on the 21st February 1924. On that date there was no appearance on behalf of the respondent. We thereupon heard the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner and inspected the ballot papers and other papers relating to the election which we obtained from the Secretary, Bengal Legislative Council. We were desirous of knowing how the mistake had occurred and we postponed our consideration of the case until we saw the correspondence on the subject which was said to have passed between the Returning Officer and Government. The case was adjourned to the 27th February. On the previous day the respondent had appeared and had asked for time to file a written statement, alleging that he had a virulent attack of asthma. This petition was pressed before us on the 27th February. It transpired during the discussion of the case that the respondent had actually resigned his seat. The respondent was thereupon asked to give his deposition. It appeared from his deposition that he was aware of the petition and the date of hearing and that he left the case to be decided by the Commissioners under the idea that they would examine the materials and give their decision. It also appeared that the respondent, though ill, was not so seriously ill as to be unable to appear before us or inform us what his answer was as to the allegations of the petitioner. The respondent had obviously changed his mind. We held in these circumstances that no case of extending the time had been made out and we rejected his prayer for an adjournment.

The respondent filed a written statement. It does not make out a case for an enquiry. Briefly the written statement amounts to this that the respondent suspects some foul play at the polling station of Mahamadpur where these votes were recorded. In the first place mere suspicion is not enough. In the second place the idea of a plot must be discarded since it resulted in the respondent's favour. Then it appears that the polling officer has admitted his responsibility. This is admitted in paragraph 12 of the written statement. We are therefore not called upon to embark on an investigation as desired by the respondent.

The election petition then must be decided on the issue whether the ballot papers stamped with the official seal indicative of the Legislative Assembly were rightly rejected or not. The learned Vakil for the respondent contends that they were rightly rejected because the proper seal was not used. There is a prayer in the alternative that a fresh election might be ordered. The election did take place and the only question before us is which of the two candidates had a majority of votes We cannot therefore direct a fresh election.

For the petitioner, Halsbury's Laws of England, Vol. XII, page 317, was quoted. The case of Cirencester 4, O'M. and H. 195. is the case in point. It was held that where the evidence is that the presiding officer has intended to make and has in fact made what fairly looked at indicates that a recognisable official mark is upon the back of the ballot papers, the ballot paper is not to be rejected for want of the official mark. As observed by the learned Vakil for the respondent, this does not help us Then the question was whether any official mark was used at all. Here we have a case where a wrong official mark was used. There is no guide for us in the English cases for apparently no such case ever occurred in England. We propose to follow the rule of equity and good conscience. The law that a ballot paper must be rejected which has not on its back the official mark was designed to set at rest the question whether the particular ballot paper was issued by the polling officer. Here there is no doubt that these ballot papers were stamped by the polling officer with a wrong official seal and issued to the voters. We hold that the votes recorded in these ballot papers in the petitioner's favour should be counted for the petitioner unless otherwise invalid. We have carefully examined the rejected ballot papers and we find that there was a clear majority of votes in favour of the petitioner. We hold therefore that the election of Maulvi Rafiuddin Ahmed should be declared void and should be set aside under section 44 (clause C). We hold that the petitioner should be declared to be duly elected to the Bengal Legislative Council.

In the peculiar circumstances of the case we recommend that the parties should bear their own costs.

Election Case No. 3/7 of 1924.

Maulvi Mahmud Suhrawardy

versus

Maulvi Zunoor Ahmed.

Report.

This is a petition of Maulvi Mahmud Suhrawardy against the election of Maulvi Zunoor Ahmed from the Burdwan Division South (Mahomedan) Constituency. The latter was elected by the narrow majority of three votes. The petitioner asked for a scrutiny and recount on certain grounds. The respondent filed a recrimination petition under Rule 42 of the Bengal Electoral Rules after depositing the security required under Rule 35 and intimated that he would give evidence that the election of the petitioner would have been void if he had been the returned candidate.

Issues were framed and witnesses examined. We were considering whether the petitioner had made out a prima facie case for a scrutiny and recount when the petitioner filed an application for leave to withdraw from his petition. The respondent did not oppose the petition of withdrawal. He in his turn gave up his petition of recrimination. The parties agreed to bear their own costs.

The petitioner stated that he was in bad health and that he realised that his petition involved a prolonged enquiry, which he was unable to attend to. We examined the petitioner and the respondent and we are satisfied that the petition of withdrawal has not been induced by any bargain or consideration. We therefore allow the petition to be withdrawn. We recommend that the parties should bear their own costs.

G. N. ROY,
G. B. MUMFORD,
GIRINDRA NATH MUKHERJEE,
Commissioners.

A.—The product of one quarter the length of the vessel from stem to stern, measured along the water-line, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the depth from the water-line to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which toll shall be levied.

B.—The measurement of the length is to be made in feet, rejecting inches: the measurement of breadth and depth is to be made in feet and quarters of a foot, rejecting any remainder of less than a quarter of a foot.

C.—The maundage on which the amount of toll is calculated shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 12½ maunds, any remainder of less than 12½ maunds being rejected. In the case of vessels exceeding 500 maunds by measurement, the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 50 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 50 maunds.

D.—Saltees.—The product of one quarter of the inside length of the vessel, measured along the centre line from stem to stern, multiplied by the interior greatest breadth of the vessel, multiplied by the greatest depth measured from the top to the interior bottom of the vessel, is to be taken as equal to the number of maunds upon which tolls shall be levied.

Class II.—

For vessels of class II the number of maunds obtained by the system of measurement prescribed for vessels of class I, shall be increased by one-half. For vessels of this class above 5,000 maunds measurement the maundage shall be reckoned to the nearest integral multiple of 500 maunds, rejecting any remainder of less than 500 maunds. In the case of steamers, the maundage determined as above shall be reduced by one-third as an allowance for engine space.

For vessels of class II which are furnished with reliable way-bills, the gross maundage of cargo shown by the way-bills, or in the case of steamers, the maundage obtained from multiplying the registered tonnage of the steamer by 27, may, at the option of the employer of the vessel or the steamer (as the case may be), be taken as the maundage on which toll will be charged :

Provided that firms or individuals, who wish to make use of this rule, must be approved by the Superintending Engineer of the Southern Circle, and that such approval may be withdrawn for any just cause.

3. Every vessel entering the canals shall be furnished with a ticket on which the name of the serang, manjee or other person in charge of the vessel, the date of entry, the maundage of the vessel, the cargo it contains, the amount of toll charged, and the number of days for which the ticket remains current, shall be entered.

4. All tolls are payable on demand and shall be paid at the toll station before a vessel is permitted to proceed: Provided that the Superintending Engineer of the Southern Circle may at his discretion permit vessels belonging to individuals or firms of recognised standing to proceed without pre-payment, on an undertaking that the bills for tollage due shall be liquidated monthly on presentation.

5. The ticket must be kept on board the vessel and must be produced for inspection when demanded by any person authorised to collect tolls, or by any officer to whom such person is subordinate. If on demand the ticket is not produced, such person or officer shall assess the tollage as provided in rule 2 and shall require payment of toll, and unless and until the toll is paid, or the original ticket or a duplicate is produced as evidence that toll has already been paid, the vessel shall be liable to seizure and detention under the provisions of section IX of the Act.

6. Duplicates of lost tickets, of which the numbers and dates can be satisfactorily established, will be granted by the collector of tolls on payment of a sum of one rupee and annas four : Provided that for tickets on which the total tollage is less than five rupees the fee to be charged for a duplicate shall be one quarter of the total tollage. The minimum fee will be eights annas per ticket.

7. A vessel which has been detained under these rules or under section IX of the Act may not be removed from the canals without the order of the collector of tolls until the toll due has been paid and a ticket obtained for presentation at the exit station. During such detention the manjee, owner or agent must make arrangements for the safety of the vessel and cargo.

8. All vessels, whether the property of Government or of private owners, are liable for toll except those specially exempted under any Government orders in force for the time being.

9. Vessels may be hauled up for repairs on the banks of the canals with the previous written permission of the supervisor appointed by the Governor in Council under section XIII. A rent calculated at one-sixth the rate of ordinary demurrage will be charged for the time the vessel occupies the bank. No vessel may be launched in the canal without the previous written permission of the supervisor.

10. At places where mooring posts have been provided by the supervisor, vessels desiring to moor shall be made fast in single line along the banks to such posts in such manner as the supervisor may direct and shall not be moored in any other manner.

11. The Superintending Engineer, Southern Circle, may fix the limit within which vessels are permitted to remain free of toll, and may also define the limits within which no loading or unloading shall be permitted.

12. No vessel whose extreme breadth including overhanging cargo exceeds 35 feet will be permitted to enter the locks at Chitpore or Dhapa : in the case of the Kulti and Bamunghatta Locks the maximum width allowable is 29 feet.

13. The supervisor may, by written notices to be posted at the toll offices, prohibit the dropping of anchors or the putting up of bamboos or luggees in any specified part of the canals or on the banks.

14. Vessels shall be allowed to make fast in single line along the canal banks in such manner as may be directed by the supervisor, and no vessel shall be made fast or be placed outside of vessels so secured. No vessel or raft shall be placed in such a position as to endanger the safety, or obstruct the passage, of other vessels. Every vessel shall at all times have some responsible person on board whom the vessel is within the locked canals between toll stations or on Tolly's Nala.

15. Vessels passing through the canals shall keep in separate lines, in accordance with the rules in force as laid down by the Superintending Engineer, Southern Circle, from time to time.

16. No person shall deposit goods of any description on the berms of the canals between the frontage roads or towpaths and the canals, except during the actual process of loading or unloading vessels, without the previous permission of the supervisor.

17. Iron built cargo boats, with outside angle irons projecting beyond the wooden fenders, will not be allowed to enter the locks unless permanent fenders are fixed over the edges of the angle irons so as to prevent them from causing damage to the lock.

18. No fire or open or unprotected light of any description shall be used on vessels containing petroleum, jute, hay or straw while in the Calcutta Canals or Tolly's Nala; and no fire or open or unprotected light (except in the case of steamers, the galley and engine-room fires and the electric light) shall be used on any vessel while in a lock basin.

19. No person shall wilfully or negligently allow a vessel to sink in the canals. No vessel which is obviously overloaded or unseaworthy will be permitted to proceed along any part of the canals until made safe to the satisfaction of the supervisor or his staff.

20. In every case of a sunken vessel, whether due to negligence or otherwise, the supervisor and his subordinates shall offer every assistance in removing the same.

If three days after the occurrence of a wreck, it is seen that prompt measures are not being taken by the owner to remove the sunken vessel from the line of navigation, the supervisor and his subordinates shall make their own arrangements for the removal of the same at the expense of the owner, provided that when the wreck obstructs fairway they shall take immediate steps to remove the same.

21. When a sunken vessel has been recovered, the supervisor shall cause notices to be posted at the locks, toll-offices, or other prominent places, calling on those concerned to pay to the collector of tolls all toll or demurrage which may be due, as well as the expenses incurred in the recovery of the vessel and cargo; should the sum due be not paid within fifteen days of the date of notice, the boat and its furniture, or so much of it as may be necessary for the recovery of the dues, will be sold under the procedure directed in section IX of the Act.

22. The purchaser of a vessel sold under the provisions of section IX of the Act shall have the right to take it out of the canals on the day of purchase, or within such time as may be allowed by the collector of tolls, without payment of tolls.

23. When any laden vessel which has sunk has been recovered, or when any laden vessel has been seized under the provisions of the Act, or of these rules, the supervisor shall give immediate notice of the recovery or seizure to the owner of the cargo or his agent, requiring the removal of the cargo without delay, and informing him that he will be required to pay all expenses necessary for the proper custody and storage of the cargo until removed.

24. If the supervisor be unable to ascertain the name and place of business or the abode of the owner of the cargo of such vessel, the notice prescribed in rule 23 shall be effected by a notice exhibited in his office, and by advertisement in at least one English and one vernacular Calcutta newspapers.

25. Steamers are not allowed to tow flats or cargo boats in the Circular Canal, but may tow one flat or barge at a time astern in the New Cut Canal or Kristopore Canal within toll limits.

26. Lights and signals.—All vessels, whether travelling or moored in the Calcutta Canals or Tolly's Nala, must, between sunset and sunrise, carry a white light properly protected from the weather on the forepart of the vessel where it can be distinctly seen from all sides. All steam vessels in motion shall carry the lights prescribed by the Board of Trade Regulations. Barges or boats attached to a steam vessel, whether in motion or moored, shall carry the light prescribed above.

27. Speed of vessels.—Every vessel proceeding through the Calcutta Canals and Tolly's Nala must, between sunset and sunrise, limit her speed to three miles per hour.

28. For any contravention of rules 7, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18, 19, 25, 26 and 27 the person in charge of the vessel or other person in fault shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 or Rs. 5 a day for any continuing infringement.

29. No boats will be allowed to remain in the entrance channels to the Dhapa and Chitpore Locks.

30. The canals may be closed once a year for effecting the necessary repairs to them on one month's notice of the intention so to close them being given; but in the event of any sudden emergency the canals may be closed at any time without prior notice, and no claim in such case by owners of vessels or others for compensation on account of detention shall be entertained.

Mr. Chittaranjan Da ... Respondent.

Report.

This is an election petition u[illegible]e 32 of the Bengal Electoral Rules and Regulations of 1923, presented by Rai Pros[illegible] Kumar Das Gupta Bahadur of Bejgaon, district Dacca. He was a candidate for elec[illegible]n from the Midnapore South non-Mahomedan Constituency. The only other candidate was Mr. C. R. Das. The Rai Bahadur personally delivered his nomination paper to the Returning Officer on the 2nd January 1924, the date appointed for nomination of the candidates. The nomination paper was completed in the prescribed form, except in one particular. The number of the candidate in the electoral roll of the constituency in which he was registered as an elector was not filled in. It appears that the Bengal Electoral Rules of 1920 did not require the insertion of this electoral roll number. The Rai Bahadur was not aware that that rule had been amended and came to learn of the amendment when filling up the nomination paper in the office of the Returning Officer. He wired to his brother at Bejgaon and also to the Subdivisional Officer of Munshiganj. His brother wired back the electoral roll number and his election agent Babu Srinath Das supplied it to the Returning Officer by a petition. The Subdivisional Officer of Munshiganj also sent a wire direct to the Returning Officer on the 3rd January 1924, supplying him with the Rai Bahadur's electoral roll number of his home constituency. The 4th January was fixed for the scrutiny of nomination papers. On that date the Returning Officer rejected the nomination of the Rai Bahadur on the ground that the omission to fill in the number of the candidate in the electoral roll was a vital defect. He found the nomination of Mr. C. R. Das in order, and declared him duly elected.

It appears, that the petitioner subsequently discovered that Mr. C. R. Das was at Bombay or Coconada on the 2nd January when his nomination paper was submitted. The petitioner wrote a letter to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal in which he maintained that there was only a technical defect in his nomination paper while there was gross irregularity in the nomination paper submitted by Mr. C. R. Das. The petitioner was informed that his remedy lay in an election petition. The petitioner wrote again on the 22nd January 1924, and asked Government to take steps to remedy the irregularities. He added that he could not risk Rs. 1,000 to fight an election petition. He did not receive any reply. Thereafter he filed the present petition on the 2nd February 1924, averring that the defect in his nomination paper was only technical and pleading that, as Mr. C. R. Das could not have signed the declaration at the foot of the nomination paper after the nomination had been duly proposed and seconded, as required by law, and that as his signature must have been put on blank paper or forged, the nomination and election of Mr. C. R. Das may be declared null and void and he himself be declared to have been duly nominated and elected for the constituency.

During the trial Counsel for the petitioner offered to accept the statement of Mr. C. R. Das. Mr. C. R. Das filed a written statement annexing a statement of facts signed by him. Mr. C. R. Das stated that he left for Coconada on the 20th December 1923, but that before he left Babus Birendra Nath Sasmal and Mahendra Nath Maiti had approached him and proposed to nominate him from the Midnapore South non-Mahomedan Constituency and that the day before he left, he accepted the proposal and signed some nomination papers and left instructions to Babu Birendra Nath Sasmal to fill up completely one of the said nomination papers in all its details including the date which was to be the date appointed for the nomination, and that in pursuance of this arrangement Babu Birendra Nath Sasmal filled up the nomination form and signed in the place set apart for the signature of the proposer, and Babu Mahendra Nath Maiti put his signature in the place meant for the signature of the seconder. Mr. C. R. Das stated also that he left instructions to appoint Babu Birendra Nath Sasmal himself (if Babu Birendra Nath Sasmal was unwilling to be the agent) as his election agent and deliver the same to the Returning Officer, after putting his signature under the clause "I hereby declare that I have appointed ..... to be my election agent," and that Babu Birendra Nath Sasmal put in the word "myself" in pursuance of these instructions. The statement of facts was eventually accepted by the petitioner.

We should mention that at one stage of the case the learned Counsel for Mr. C. R. Das raised the contention that the petition was not bonâ fide, the suggestion apparently being that the Government had supplied the petitioner with funds to contest the election. The Rai Bahadur has given his deposition and he has stated that, he paid the money from his own pocket. We need only say that, in our opinion, the suggestion is altogether unfounded.

Not unconnected with this plea was a petition asking for a stay of the proceedings on the ground that the respondent apprehended that he would not have a fair trial before us and that he wanted time to move His Excellency the Governor to appoint new Commissioners for the trial of the petition. Time was given. We were informed that such a petition was filed and before writing our report information has reached us that the petition was rejected. In this connection we only think it necessary to say that we did not see any grounds for such an apprehension.

We proceed to consider the merits of the case. The facts are not disputed now. The only question being whether the nominations of the two candidates were good or bad, we did not think it necessary to draw up any issues. The decision turns upon the interpretation of Rule 11(3) of the Bengal Electoral Rules. It runs as follows:—

"On or before the date so appointed for the nomination of candidates, each candidate shall either in person or by his proposer and seconder together between the hours of eleven o'clock in the forenoon and three o'clock in the afternoon, deliver to the Returning Officer ..... a nomination paper completed in the form prescribed in schedule III and subscribed by the candidate himself as assenting to the nomination and by two persons as proposer and seconder, whose names are registered on the electoral roll of the constituency."

The learned Counsel appearing for the respondent has taken two legal objections to the petition of the Rai Bahadur. It appears that after the nomination of the petitioner was rejected, his election agent withdrew the deposit which has to be made under rule 12. The contention is that the Rai Bahadur accepted the decision of the Returning Officer and by withdrawing the deposit he is no longer a candidate. Under rule 32 an election petition may be filed by any candidate or elector. It was argued that the word "elector" means an elector of the constituency since it would be ridiculous for an elector in one constituency to complain about any irregularity in another constituency. We are disposed to agree, but we may point out that the rule, as framed, does not place any limitation on the word elector. The Rai Bahadur is still a candidate according to the definition of the candidate in rule 30(b) inasmuch as he claims that he was duly nominated and that his nomination paper was improperly rejected. It may be again that the petitioner accepted at first the decision of the Returning Officer. If, on consideration, or under legal advice he thought that the decision was wrong he cannot be precluded from questioning the election merely because of the fact that the deposit was returned to him. There is no question of estoppel. We are considering his position on the 4th January 1924. The deposit was there on that date and if it be found that he was duly nominated the case would be met by the Rai Bahadur redepositing the money. We hold that the petition is maintainable.

The second objection is that the nomination paper of the Rai Bahadur is invalid on its face. There are four defects in it. The constituency for which the candidate was nominated is mentioned as "South Midnapore" while it should be "Midnapore South non-Mahomedan". The constituency in which the Rai Bahadur was registered as an elector is described as "Munshiganj (Dacca)—Rural" while it should be "Dacca Rural non-Mahomedan." The name of the proposer is Srinath Chandra Das. It is put down as Srinath Ch Das, and he signed as Srinath Das. The fourth defect is the omission of the electoral roll number of the candidate. The Returning Officer considered the first three defects technical, but the fourth vital.

The mistakes in the description of the constituencies are slight, and we do not think that they could possibly mislead anyone. In respect of the third defect the learned Counsel has quoted the case of Moorhouse versus Linney (15 Queen's Bench Division, page 273), where a nomination paper was held to be bad, by reason of the fact, that the elector subscribed as Charles Arthur Burman when he was entered on the register as Charles Burman. It was held that the discrepancy suggested that there might be two persons one called Charles Burman and another called Charles Arthur Burman. The statute it was said however in Bowden versus Besby (21 Queen's Bench Division page 309), does not require that the subscriptions shall identically correspond with the entries of the names on the register. In the present case the identity of the proposer with him name on the electoral roll is not questioned. A Bengali with the name Srinath [illegible]dra Das might sign himself as Srinath Das, or Srinath Chandra Das. The defect is very technical and carries no weight.

We have to see whether the omission of the electoral roll number of the petitioner is not. The learned Counsel for the respondent quoted the case of Monks versus [illegible] (1 Common Pleas Division, page 683) for his argument, that the statute must be strictly The statute said that the nomination paper must be delivered by the candidate himself or by his proposer and seconder. It was held that the delivery by an agent, therefore, will not do. In the present case the dispute is over the question whether it is essential that the form in schedule III should be filled up in every particular at the time of the delivery. The case of Hobbs versus Mosey (1 King's Bench Division, page 74) is quoted for the principle, that the court had to decide on the validity of the nomination paper itself. The English Law is that the decision of the Returning Officer if disallowing the objection is final, but it is not so, if the objection is allowed. It is subject to reversal on questioning the election (Parker, page 250). The Ballot Act lays down that no election shall be declared invalid by reason of non-compliance with the rules or any mistake in the use of the forms in the schedule, if it appears to the tribunal that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the body of the Act. Commentators seem to be agreed that mistakes in the use of forms will not invalidate an election.

Turning to our law it has been recently held that the filling up of the date against the candidate's name is not essential (S. N. Halder versus S. N. Mallik). The case of Maharajah Sir Manindra Chandra Nandi versus Hon'ble Probash Chandra Mitter (also recently decided), was referred to for the proposition that the nomination paper must be complete on the day of the nomination. As we read that decision the principle laid down was that the candidate must be eligible on the date of the nomination. In the present case there was no question that the petitioner was eligible to stand as a candidate. Only he did not know his electoral roll number. In the rules of 1920 it was not necessary to give this number. He procured the roll number and the Returning Officer was placed in possession of that fact before the scrutiny. It may be mentioned that no objection on this point was taken on the side of the respondent at the scrutiny. The object of the information required to be furnished in the form is to allow the elector or the constituency an opportunity of testing whether the candidate is a duly qualified elector. In this particular case we find that had the descriptions referred to in rule 11(7) been affixed in a conspicuous place by the Returning Officer, not only the necessary roll, but the name of the candidate (a Rai Bahadur) therein could have been traced therefrom with no more enquiry than would have been necessary, if the nomination paper had been beyond all criticism. We are inclined to hold that, in the particular circumstances of the present case the petitioner should be held to have complied with the provisions as to the completion of the nomination form.

Coming to the case of the respondent it is pointed out by the learned Counsel that the rules do not lay down how the form is to be completed, and, in fact, in the rules the subscription of the candidate as assenting to the nomination comes before the subscription of the proposer and the seconder. It is urged, on the other hand, that the whole scheme is that the nomination should be in writing and be first signed by the proposer and seconder, and then assented to by the candidate. It is argued that a verbal arrangement is not enough and, if allowed to prevail, might lead to absurdities. It does not appear that the nomination paper has to be filled in at any particular time. It may be filled up days before the nomination and it may even be presented to the Returning Officer before the date fixed for the nomination of candidates So that if Mr. C. R. Das and his proposer and seconder had filled in the paper before he left for Coconada it would have been a good nomination paper when deliverd on the 2nd January 1924 by his proposer and seconder to the Returning Officer. What he did was to sign the nomination paper after he accepted the proposal of his proposer and seconder and leave it with instructions to them to fill up the other particulars. The learned Vakil for the petitioner has quoted the case of Harman versus Park (7 Queen's Bench Division page 369), to show that the nomination paper must be fully filled up before it is subscribed by anyone. The case was distinguished in Cox versus Davies (2 Queen's Bench Division page 202) on which reliance has been placed by the learned Counsel for the respondent. Here the candidate's name had not been put in when the proposer and seconder signed the paper. It was held that if the signatures of the proposer and seconder were taken for filling in of the name of a candidate that they did not intend it would be a different matter, but that a nomination paper signed before it is properly filled up is not necessarily bad. The present case is slightly different, in as much as the candidate signed first as signifying his assent, and then his proposer and seconder signed afterwards. The learned Vakil asks as to when the nomination was made? The nomination takes place when the nomination paper properly completed and subscribed is delivered to the Returning Officer. The course adopted by the respondent therefore was somewhat irregular, but does not appear to be contrary to any provisions of law. We do not, therefore, think that the nomination was invalid.

Our conclusion therefore is that the nomination of the petitioner was valid and was wrongly rejected. We also hold that the respondent was duly nominated. The result is that the election of Mr. C. R. Das should be set aside and a fresh election ordered.

In the circumstances of the case, we recommend that the parties do bear their [illegible] costs.

Report.

This is a petition by Maulvi Yaquinuddin Ahmad, one of the candidates at the election for the Dinajpur Muhammadan Constituency, challenging the return of the successful candidate Maulvi Kader Bux, respondent No. 1. Briefly stated, the election is challenged on the ground that corrupt practices were committed, viz., (1) a corrupt practice under clause [illegible] of Part I of Schedule V of the Election Rules in that the agent or agents of the successful candidate's agent procured or abetted the personation of a voter Jhoru Mamud M[illegible]dal at the polling station at Habra School; (2) a corrupt practice under the same cla[illegible]e in that the successful candidate himself procured or abetted the personation of a voter Kafuruddin Shaikh at the polling station at the Dinajpur Municipal Office; (3) a charge under clause 4 of Part I of the said Schedule in that false statements of fact relating to petitioner's conduct were made in the leaflet referred to as exhibit A in the petition; and (4) a corrupt practice under rule 8 of Part II of the said Schedule in that the leaflet, exhibit A, does not contain the name and address of the publisher thereof on the face of it. On these allegations the petitioner asks that the election be declared void and that he be declared duly elected.

Respondent No. 1, the successful candidate, denies all the charges; he has also in his written statement contended that the election petition filed by the petitioner is not in proper form, and has not been properly verified; he also questions the power to allow amendment of the petition.

Respondent No. 2 has taken no part in the proceedings. We had no hesitation in declining to consider the objections taken by respondent as to the form, verification, and amendment of the petition allowed by His Excellency on the ground that it is not open to us to consider what happened from the filing of the petition to the appointment of the commission. We also held that under rule 33 (3) we have clearly power to allow amendment of particulars.

We also decided in respect of petitioner's claim to be declared duly elected that the prayer could not be seriously entertained. Respondent No. 1 obtained 4,380 votes, respondent No. 2 obtained 1,304 votes, and petitioner obtained 190. Petitioner declared in his petition that respondent No. 2 had "agreed that he will not claim his preferential right" and it was asserted at the bar and not denied, though not proved, that a formal deed of release had been executed to that effect. It is clear that such an agreement can have no effect whatever and that it is an interference with the right of the electors of the constituency to select their representative by their votes. Even if there had been no other candidate it is clear to us that when polling has taken place the Commissioners cannot declare a defeated candidate to have been duly elected unless after striking out the invalid votes on both sides it is found that the claimant has polled the majority of valid votes actually given. We consider in view of the novelty of election proceedings in this country that rule 31 of the Electoral Rules might be amended so as to afford some guidance to petitioners as to the circumstances in which such a claim is proper.

We further decided that as the respondent No. 1 accepted responsibility for the publication of the leaflet, exhibit A of the petition, which is exhibit 2 of these proceedings, and as it did not contain the name and address of the publisher on its face the fourth corrupt practice charged had been clearly made out, but that as the petitioner asserted and respondent No. 1 admitted that the leaflet was distributed by the agents of this respondent the omission could not possibly be held to have materially affected the result of the election. Under rule 44 (1)(a) this corrupt practice would not, therefore, invalidate the election. We accordingly declined to frame an issue on this point, but reserved for our consideration the question of what recommendation, if any, should be made by us as to the exemption of the respondent from the disqualification incurred by him.

After deciding these matters we framed the following issues:—

(1) Does the leaflet exhibit A, containing as it does extracts from the report of the Committee on the Amendment of the Bengal Tenancy Act without the observations in the Note of Dissent thereto, amount to a false statement as to the conduct of the petitioner?

(2) If so, did the respondent No. 1 believe it to be false or did not believe it to be true?

(3) Is the statement at the bottom of the leaflet, exhibit A, that the committee recommended the proposals to be carried into law false?

(4) If so, did the respondent believe it to be false or did not believe it to be true?

(5) Was either of such statements, if false, reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of the petitioner's election?

(6) Is the charge of personation in paragraph 12 (a) of the petition established?

(7) If so, was the personation at the instance of, or with the connivance of, the respondent's agent?

(8) Is the charge of personation in paragraph 12(b) of the petition established?

(9) If so, was the personation at the instance of, or with the connivance of, the respondent?

Of these the issues in relation to the leaflet have, at the hearing, been found to be the most important, and we therefore reserve them to be dealt with last of all.

Issues Nos. 6 and 7 relate to the charge of personation at Habra. The only evidence adduced on this charge is that at that polling station the vote of a man claiming to be Jhoru Mamud Mandal was challenged. No further evidence having been adduced by petitioner we decided that no case had been made out which respondent was called on to meet and find that this charge of personation is in no way proved and that issue No. 7 does not arise.

Issue No. 9 deals with the charge of personation at the Dinajpur Municipal Office. It is clearly proved by the evidence on both sides that apart from the man who is said to have personated Kafuruddin six persons only were present in the polling booth, viz. the Presiding Officer, the Polling Officer, the petitioner and his polling agent, and the respondent No. 1 and his polling agent. All these have been examined, and as to most of the facts in connection with the incident there is no dispute. That a man giving his name as Kafuruddin and his father's name as something quite different from Abdul Hakim appeared at the poll; that his vote was challenged by the petitioner but that he was allowed to vote after identification, the necessary entries being made in the list of challenged votes; that subsequently another man appeared who gave his name either as Kafuruddin or as something slightly different from it and his father's name as Abdul Hakim, and that his vote was taken on a tendered ballot paper, are undisputed facts.

It was argued before us that personation being a corrupt practice a corrupt motive must be established, and that if a man has an innocent motive, or acts under a bonâ fide mistake, he cannot be held guilty of personation. That this is the English law as to personation seems certain, and the same view was adopted in this country in the Punjab South East Towns case reported at page 166 of Hammond's Indian Election Petitions. We are, however, unable to agree with this view and would observe that in the precedent above quoted the Commissioners followed their decision in the Rohtak case (Hammond, page 183) which relates to an offence defined in section 171C of the Penal Code, in which the word "voluntarily" occurs, and not to an offence defined in section 171D in which no such word is to be found. As our view leads to the apparently absurd conclusion that a man may be convicted of an offence under section 171F, however innocent his intention, we consider it desirable to give our reasons for the view in order that the question of removing this apparent defect in the electoral law may be considered. The definition of personation in the Election Rules and in the Penal Code is taken from the English Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act of 1883. By that Act personation is declared to be punishable as a felony. The Act itself is silent as to the motive or intention of the offender, but the doctrine of mens rea as applicable to felonies has led to a decision in England that before a corrupt practice can be held to have been committed a corrupt motive (which the later authorities show may exist without any moral corruption) must be established. In this country the doctrine of mens rea has been inapplicable since the passing of the Penal Code on the ground that the definitions of offences in the Code describe the intention, knowledge, etc., which must be proved a particular offence can be held to have been committed. We are therefore unable to follow the English Courts in applying the doctrine of mens rea and are compelled to look to the section itself in the Penal Code and to interpret it as it stands with reference to the various definitions in the Code. The section being silent as to the intention or knowledge of the offender and containing, so far as we can see, no word the definition of which introduces any question of knowledge or intention, it necessarily follows that an offence must be held to have been committed whenever the requisite facts have been proved, regardless of the intention or knowledge of the offender.

There is a further difficulty in the way of our accepting the English rule that a corrupt practice cannot be proved unless a corrupt motive is shown. Every electoral offence described in Schedule V is called a corrupt practice. In English Law there is a clear distinction between corrupt practices and illegal practices, and in the case of the latter motive or intention is immaterial. Schedule V includes what are corrupt practices in England as well as what are illegal practices. If therefore the English rule as to corrupt practices be followed, a practice such as the hiring of a liquor shop as a committee room, which is quite clearly meant to be forbidden absolutely, will in this country be permissible if the intention of the hirer is innocent.

We therefore hold that we are not concerned with the honesty or otherwise of the person said to have committed personation, provided his acts fall within the words of the rule. On the evidence before us in this case we are fully satisfied that there is only one entry in the Electoral Roll under which either of the two persons who voted can come, viz., entry No. 36 of Ward D in which the elector's name is given as Kafuruddin and his father's name as Abdul Hakim. We are further satisfied that each of the two persons is qualified and that both should have been on the roll. The first man's name is that given in the roll, but his father's name does not tally; the second man's name is, we are convinced, Kafiruddin alias Gafaruddin; he gives his father's name as Abdul Hakim, but in his service roll in the District Judge's office, where he is employed as a process-server, his father's name is given as Hakim Muhammad. While it would appear to be more probable that the entry in the roll is intended to refer to the second man, it is impossible to say with any certainty that it does refer to him and to him alone. Personation is a criminal offence, and before the offence can be held to be established it must be proved that the person entered in the roll is beyond any reasonable doubt some one other than the man charged with personation. We find it impossible to say on the materials before us that either of these two would be voters is, or is not, the voter entered in the roll, nor do we see any chance of obtaining any more light on the matter by calling any further witnesses. We accordingly hold that this charge of personation has not been proved. We wish to add that in coming to this conclusion we have considered the novelty of election procedure in this country and the knowledge of that procedure which may reasonably be expected; but we would respectfully follow the precedent of the Boston case in 1871, which is reported in 2 O'Malley and Hardcastle at page 165 and observe that it by no means follows that either this commission or any other commission will, even on the same apparent state of facts, hold in any subsequent case that the offence of personation has not been committed, or in each case the existing state of knowledge and the existing circumstances have to be considered.

In view of our decision on issue No. 8 the question raised in issue No. 9 does not strictly arise; but as the charge has been made we think it only fair to respondent No. 1 to say that in our opinion even if Kafuruddin, the first comer, had been held guilty of personation, the evidence before us in no way establishes that the candidate himself did anything improper. We have not been asked to, and do not, hold that petitioner has intentionally given an untrue account, but a candidate at an election generally views the acts of a rival candidate through a dense cloud of prejudice and his subsequent recollection of any incident is liable to be affected by prejudice. The polling agent of petitioner admits that the respondent said he did not know the man; and after that statement it is obviously impossible to hold that the candidate was abetting personation. We would however observe that at this polling station the polling agent of respondent No. 1 was the brother of the Presiding Officer. We do not consider the latter in any way affected by this as he had no power to refuse to admit any authorised polling agent and there is no reason even to suspect in the present case that anything improper was done by either of these gentlemen during the voting. But the undesirability of such a close relationship between the Presiding Officer and the polling agent of one candidate is obvious, and we are surprised that the agent in question who is a pleader should not have seen the impropriety of his acting at that particular polling station.

We now turn to the most important question. Although issues Nos. 1 to 5 do not specifically refer to the interpretation of clause 4 of Part I of Schedule V it is necessary to consider that rule. There can be no question that the leaflet, exhibit 2, contains no statement about the personal character or personal conduct of the petitioner, and it has been strongly urged on behalf of the respondent that clause 4 does not apply to statements of fact in relation to the public conduct of a candidate. To decide this point we have found it necessary to refer to the English authorities and we desire to express our indebtedness to the learned pleader for respondent who has furnished us, both on this question and on some other questions of law discussed, not merely with commentaries on the English election law but with various volumes of O'Malley and Hardcastle's reports of English election cases. The contention urged for respondent finds great support from many expressions in English cases, and the rule we have to interpret is practically a verbatim copy of English law. But prima facie the words "personal character or conduct" do not necessarily show that the conduct must be personal, and apart from considerations arising from the conditions of a particular country which will be dealt with later, there is no apparent principle on which a deliberately false statement of fact relating to the public conduct of a candidate should be permitted by the election law. Only two instances have been brought to our notice or discovered by us in which statements as to what was clearly public conduct have been before the Election Courts in England, but we recognize that this may be due to the fact that the general trend of the English cases is in favour of the view that statements as to such conduct do not concern those courts. The first of the cases referred to is the Cockermouth case (5 O'Malley and Hardcastle, page 155). At page 163 a statement that a candidate voted in Parliament in a particular way is considered. Though holding that this was not a criticism of personal conduct Darling J. proceeded to find that it was to a very large extent true. In the Attercliffe Division case reported in the same volume Walton J. at page 223 states, "Paragraphs 3 and 4 to my mind relate obviously to public acts and to public conduct alone. I do not say that they may not be within the Act;" he then proceeds to decide the case on the ground that the statements are not false statements. We are unable to hold that the English authorities definitely decide that only statements relating to personal conduct and not those relating to public conduct come within the rule. We would observe that it appears to us a matter worthy of serious consideration whether the exclusion of statements relating to public conduct from the purview of the rule is desirable under present conditions in this country. The English law on the subject was only passed in 1895, and if it was intended to exclude public conduct the reason may well have been that the electorate was very largely literate and also in the habit of reading newspapers, which were numerous and widely circulated. False statements as to public conduct would therefore not be likely to mislead most of the electors, and their falsity could be easily and speedily shown. These considerations do not seem to apply to this country as yet, and in view of the damage which could be done to a candidate's prospects at an election by the circulation of false statements as to his public conduct we are very doubtful whether the rule was ever intended in this country to exclude such statements. We are, however, relieved of the necessity of deciding this question definitely in view of our conclusions on the question whether the present case can be brought within the rule at all.

The petitioner's case is that the leaflet deliberately ascribes to him opinions on the amendment of the Tenancy Act which he does not hold. Respondent's case is that the leaflet deals with the report of the Committee and not with the views of the individual members thereof. We are fully satisfied that if the leaflet professes to describe petitioner's individual opinions it contains undoubtedly false statements of those opinions. We also hold that if respondent intended to deal with petitioner's individual opinions he was bound to refer to the latter's note of dissent before asserting as a fact that petitioner held any particular opinion and that if he did not do so he could not expect us to hold that he really believed his statements to be true nor even that he did not know them to be false. On the other hand, we hold that if the leaflet was issued in reference to the report of the Committee there was no necessity to refer to the Minutes of Dissent. We further hold that the statement referred to in issue No. 3 clearly relates to the report of the Committee as a whole and therefore does not come within the rule as to statements about a candidate. We have been asked to hold that if a leaflet contains statements of fact each clearly true, but the inference which would be naturally drawn from them would, owing to the failure to state certain other facts, be false, then there is a false statement of facts in the leaflet. We can find no authority in support of this view and we are not prepared, in view of the undoubted latitude allowed to candidates at elections, to hold that anything except a direct statement of fact can come within the rule. Our decision therefore must depend on the answer to the question, does the leaflet refer to the individual opinions of the petitioner or to the report of the committee as a whole? After full consideration of the matter we think the answer must be in favour of respondent. We see no reason to doubt his sworn statement in view of the perfect frankness with which he accepted responsibility for the publication, and his assertion receives considerable support from the view of the leaflet expressed in Exhibit B, a letter from one of petitioner's polling agents which the petitioner filed in Court of his own accord. That the fact of the petitioner being a member of the committee was intentionally brought to the notice of the electorate is clear, seeing that his name was placed at the head of the list and Dinajpur was printed after it. But after considering the leaflet most carefully we hold that the statements of fact contained in it with which we are concerned are that a certain committee had submitted a certain report and that petitioner was a member of that committee. Both those statements are true and as the electoral law so far as we can see does not concern itself with opinions, suggestions, inferences or innuendoes but merely with statements of fact, we hold that petitioner has failed to bring the leaflet within clause 4. We therefore answer issue No. 1 in the negative and hold that issues 2, 3, 4 and 5 do not arise.

To sum up, we hold that of the corrupt practices alleged the first three have not been proved, that the fourth charge under clause 8 of Part II of Schedule V has been proved, but that the corrupt practice did not materially affect the result of the election. We accordingly report that the respondent No. 1, Maulvi Kader Bux, was duly elected by the Dinajpur Muhammadan Constituency. We further report that Maulvi Kader Bux was guilty of a corrupt practice under clause 8 of Part II of Schedule V in that he published the leaflet (exhibit 2) without the name and address of the publisher on the face thereof. In view of his frankness in the matter and of the fact that the cost of printing the leaflet is included in his return of expenses filed before the present petition, we accept his statement that the omission was purely accidental. In view of the unfamiliarity of the electoral law we accordingly recommend that Maulvi Kader Bux be entirely exempted from the disability imposed by rule 5 of the Electoral Rules.

We have considered the question of costs but see no reason to depart from the ordinary rule that a person who fails to establish anything but a very minor part of his case should be mulcted in costs. We accordingly recommend that the costs of respondent No. 1, which we assess at Rs. 600, should be paid by the petitioner to that respondent and that petitioner should bear his own costs.

Election Case No. 6 of 1924.

Sashi Kumar Sen Gupta
versus
Jatindra Nath Basu.

Report.

This is an election petition from the Calcutta North Non-Mahomedan Constituency. The election was for the Bengal Legislative Council. It took place on 14th November 1923. There were three candidates, Mr. Jatindra Nath Basu of the firm of B. N. Basu & Co., Babu Krista Lal Datta, a former Accountant-General of Bengal, and Dr Sashi Kumar Sen Gupta. They polled 1,121, 996 and 808 votes, respectively. Babu Jatindra Nath Basu was declared as duly elected. The present petition was filed by Dr. Sashi Kumar Sen Gupta on the 21st December 1923. The petitioner charged Babu Jatindra Nath Basu with being guilty of practically every sort of corrupt practice enumerated in Schedule V of the Bengal Electoral Rules and Regulations. No particulars were given except in respect of the corrupt practice mentioned in Part II, section 6 of the schedule, viz., "the hiring, employment, borrowing or using for the purposes of the election of any boat, vehicle or animal usually kept for letting on hire or for the conveyance of passengers by hire". Paragraph 7 of the petition states that Jatindra Nath Basu was by himself and other persons on his behalf guilty of this corrupt practice. Among others nine taxi-cabs were specifically mentioned as having been used by him. There were two numbers given against each taxi-cab, CC series being the numbers of the cabs and 1880 series being numbers said to have been put on them by Babu Jatindra Nath Basu. The petitioner further alleged that on the 18th November 1923 at the counting of votes when the ballot boxes were opened by the Returning Officer, his seals were not found on some of the boxes and their covering bags and some of the seals were found broken and it was further found that the number of the ballot papers in some of the ballot boxes did not agree with the number of the ballot papers as given by the presiding officers in their ballot paper account.

The trial of the petition was fixed for the 8th February 1924. The respondent appeared before that date and submitted that no particulars had been given of the various alleged corrupt practices and that the petition ought to be summarily dismissed so far as it was founded on corrupt practices, of which no particulars were given as required by law. It was pleaded that in respect of paragraph 7 of the petition the particulars were insufficient and meagre. The respondent did not admit the allegation that the seals were found wanting or broken and put the petitioner to strict proof thereof. A copy of this petition was given to the doctor. On the date fixed (i.e., 8th February) the learned Counsel appearing for the petitioner informed us that he would limit his case to paragraph 7 and paragraphs 11-13 and first part of paragraph 14 of the petition, i.e., to the hiring, etc. of the taxi-cabs and the absence of seals on the boxes and bags. The petitioner was directed to give as far as possible particulars "of the other persons on his behalf" mentioned in paragraph 7 and to indicate some voters by name or number who were alleged to have been conveyed in the taxis mentioned in the paragraph. The issues fixed were :—

No. 1. "Was there any hiring, employing, borrowing and using of vehicles as alleged in paraghaph 7 ? If so, did it materially affect the result of the election ? " In respect of the matters mentioned in paragraphs 11-11 we were not satisfied that any rule or regulation was infringed or that the Returning Officer had done anything which he should not have done or that he had not done anything which he should have done. The petitioner was asked by us to make out a primâ facie case and the issue framed was

No. 2. Was there any non-compliance with any rule or regulation framed under the Act ? If so, has the result of the election been materially affected thereby ?

The petitioner supplies for particulars on the 18th February 1924 to the effect that Jatindra Nath Basu either by himself or in his name or through agents in the name of Jatindranath Pal or Bisseswar Sen or Gobardhan De engaged the cabs mentioned in paragraph 7 of the election petition besides other cabs. It was stated that among others one Bhupal Chandra Chakraverty and one Khite Bhusan Das, one Jadunath Pal and one Ahindra Nath Pal, four canvassers and workers on behalf of the respondent accompanied at least 50 voters in the said taxi-cabs and other cabs let out for hire "from the latter's destinations to the polling stations". The names of 11 voters were given. The petitioner had numerous witnesses summoned. He examined 39 including himself. The respondent examined 14 witnesses including himself.

We take up issue No. 2 first. Complaint is made in the petition that the doctor brought to the notice of the Returning Officer the fact of the absence of his seals and requested him to put it on record, but the Returning Officer refused to do so. The Returning Officer, Mr. Roxburgh, was examined and he deposes that as soon as the first bag from Nandalal Bose's house (one of the three polling stations) was produced in its gunny covering, the doctor said he could not find his seal on it. He was asked if his seal was affixed on it He could not say, but he said that he had been told by his election agent that this had been done. Other boxes were opened. The seals on all four boxes were intact they were locked. Mr. Roxburgh deposed that no tampering was possible, regard being had to the arrangements, though in transit it was possible that a seal or two on the outer gunny bags got broken or fell off. Mr. K. L. Datta, who got a larger number of votes than the doctor was examined by the petitioner and his evidence is that he did not take any action as he thought it was impossible to tamper with the seals. The objection was apparently not serious and was given up as the other boxes were opened. Mr. Roxburgh has deposed that there was no complaint in respect of the ballot boxes themselves. He was able to produce 8 out of 11 bags and he showed that the doctor's seal (which the latter could not find himself) was still intact on one of the bags. One gentleman deposed that he had put the seal on the sewing of the gunny bag ; but when shown the gunny bag with the sewing without a trace of any sealing wax, he could not say where he had put the seal. The learned Counsel for the petitioner contended that the petitioner had reason to suspect that the ballot papers had been tampered with. It appears that a discussion was started in a paper called "Forward" on the subject and it is started without objection that the petitioner's party came to the conclusion that seals on all the bags and boxes in all centres had been tampered with. The doctor has deposed frankly that he did not venture to file this petition until he had the support of his party. It is suggested on the side of the respondent that it is not the doctor's own view which is being put forward but that of the party. All we need say is that the suspicion is entirely imaginary. The doctor has said nothing in his deposition contrary to what Mr Roxburgh told us. The doctor's position is that he wished to draw attention to the subject for future guidance. He desires that gunny bags should not be used, that better bags like postal bags should be used and that there should be a record as to who was in charge of the boxes up to the time of the counting. We can leave the matter there.

The suggestion that there may have been a tampering because of the discrepancy between the figures of the presiding officers and the figures actually found in the boxes appears to be even more groundless. There were nearly 2,000 ballot papers issued. The discrepancy is only 5. According to the return under regulation XLIX every ballot paper issued to a voter may not have gone into the ballot box It appears again that voting for the Indian Legislative Assembly was going on at the same time. In the constituency three ballot papers were rejected, because they were meant for the Indian Legislative Assembly. It is possible that these five electors of this constituency put the papers in boxes meant for the Indian Legislative Assembly or did not eventually exercise their right to vote. We were repeatedly asked to send for the ballot papers and hold an enquiry. We are surprised that it should be thought necessary to institute any enquiry on such slender materials. It is not shown that there was any non-compliance with any rule or regulation. Issue No. 2 is decided therefore against the petitioner.

We come to the first issue. Under the English Law it is now an illegal hiring to let or hire or employ or use for the purpose of conveying electors to or from the polls any public stage or hackney-carriage. The offence of illegal hiring becomes an illegal practice when committed by the candidate, election agent or sub-agent and when so committed, the election may be set aside. (Parker, page 294-295). The illegal practice must be brought home to the candidate or his agent. Where several hired motor-cars were lent to a candidate by a friend, but it was proved that, although the candidate had asked the friend for some cars, he did not know and had no reason to suppose the cars sent had been hired, it was held that the friend not being an agent no illegal practice, for which the candidate was responsible, had been committed (East Dorset 6 O'm and H., pages 37 and 48). With us (the section has been quoted above) it is apparently not necessary to show that the candidate or his agent hired the taxis; but on the other hand the election can only be set aside if it is proved that the result of the election has been materially affected by the hiring or use of such taxi-cabs.

There is a great conflict of evidence on the point whether taxi-cabs were used at all. On the one hand we have the petitioner and his witnesses asserting that from 1 to 100 taxi-cabs plied all day long displaying Mr. Basu's placards. On the other hand we have the respondent and his witnesses from the different centres denying that there was any taxi-cab at all on their side. Canvassers and workers alleged to have been working for Mr. Basu are produced by the petitioner to show that they used taxi-cabs to bring voters; but Mr. Basu and his men repudiate these allegations. The petitioner's witnesses declare that taxi-cabs were noticed and the matter discussed and the numbers of taxi-cabs taken. Mr. Basu and his men say that the matter was never discussed to their knowledge or at any rate never brought to their notice on the polling day. It again appears that the matter was discussed in the papers and the contention of the defence is that the petitioner's party imagined certain numbers of taxi-cabs which they put in in the original petition and having failed to substantiate their case as regards these they have procured other evidence on which no reliance can be placed. It is urged that no witness will take the responsibility of having furnished the original numbers of taxi-cabs given in the petition. It is pointed out that none of the agents mentioned in the particulars supplied by the petitioner on 18th February 1924 was examined by him and that of the 11 voters mentioned therein only 1 was examined (who did not support the petitioner) and that they produced various other witnesses to prove that about 47 others were taken to the poll in taxi-cabs (8 or 9 have deposed for the defence showing that the evidence of these witnesses is not reliable). It is pointed out that taxi-cab drivers, partisans of Mr. K. L. Datta and the doctor and so-called independent men are produced at the last moment to prove that numerous taxi-cabs were used. Complaint is made that the petitioner was in possession of a volume of evidence which he did not disclose and that he was allowed to examine witnesses in violation and in breach of the directions given and contrary to the law on the subject. Particulars, said Lord Justice Lindley, are in the nature of an indictment (1895, 2 Queen's Bench, p. 152). It is urged that the particulars have been given a go-bye and evidence produced at the last moment with the evident object that the sitting member would not be able to meet it. It is contended, however, on behalf of Mr. Basu that when they have been able to test the evidence produced, it has been found wanting and that the whole evidence produced does not stand the test of examination. It is acknowledged by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that he may not know of the particulars, but that when he has them he should supply them to enable the sitting member to defend his case. His argument was that he did not know them. It appears that Revati Babu, a member of the Congress Party, took charge of the case and he procured the evidence. He may be an estimable man, but although he was present in Court throughout, he did not come into the witness-box and inform us when and how he was able to get all this evidence. This case is the first of its kind in India and we considered it desirable to take all the evidence offered in order to have as full an enquiry as is possible. The examination of the witnesses is open to the interpretation that most of them had been approached by Revati Babu before the further particulars were furnished and the nature of the evidence in the petitioner's possession was kept back in order to take the respondent by surprise. The question now is whether this evidence should be believed or not.

The charge that Mr. J. N. Basu was by himself or other persons on his behalf guilty of employing taxi-cabs has failed. The petitioner did not examine the three agents mentioned in the particulars. The respondent examined Bisheswar Sen. No question was put to him about Mr. Basu or his agents hiring the taxi-cabs. The four canvassers mentioned in the particulars were examined by the petitioner. Bhupal Chandra Chakraverty's evidence is of no assistance. He said that he thought the motor in his charge was a taxi, because the driver was a Sikh. Jadunath Pal, Ahindralal Pal and Khitibhusan Das Gupta have given positive evidence that they worked for Jatin Babu and each says that he brought voters in a taxi-cab. They said that they worked at the instance of Babu Promatha Nath Choudhury. Ahindralal Pal alleged that he went to Jatin Babu's and got a taxi from Jatin Babu and took it to Promatha Babu. Jatin Babu and Promatha Babu (a young zamindar and banker) deny knowing them at all. It is not insignificant that these young men came from 16-1, Abhoy Charan Mitter's Street, where one of the principal canvassers of the doctor, a cousin of Khitibhusan, lived and worked for the doctor. Ahindra deposed that he took among others Sarat Kumar Mitter (the son of a High Court Judge) in his taxi. Sarat Kumar Mitter deposed for the respondent and stated that he did not know Ahindra and that he went to the poll in a private motor-car. The petitioner examined Suresh Chandra Basak who says he noticed about ten taxis working for Jatin Babu and carrying about 25 to 30 voters. He had worked for Jatin Babu before the election day, but had left his work either because he was not getting enough money or because he was not being paid in advance. Obviously this witness has a grievance against Jatin Babu or his agent Durga Charan Babu. Binoy Krishna Roy was examined also as a canvasser of Jatin Babu and he deposed that Hem Chandra Ghosh had given him a taxi. Binoy Krishna's brother Jiban Krishna was examined and he deposed that he was taken to the poll in a taxi by Hem Chandra Ghosh. Hem Chandra Ghosh, who is a relative of Mr. J. N. Basu and who worked for him, deposes that these two men were working for the Swaraj Party and not for Jatin Babu. Jiban Krishna's evidence is that he saw Jatindra Mohan Bose a voter coming in a taxi. The latter (the Senior Assistant of the Director of Industries) has deposed that he was fetched from his office by his son in a car belonging to Jatin Babu's side and he was not cross-examined as to whether it was a taxi. Babu Jatindra Nath Basu is emphatic in his denial that any taxi-cabs were used. He has examined his men from the different centres who are equally emphatic. They are men of responsibility and position. Our impression is that this evidence produced by the petitioner is not reliable.

We do not propose to examine the rest of the evidence at great length. The doctor, his brother a professor, Mr. K. L. Datta and others have deposed that they saw taxi-cabs bearing Mr. Basu's placards. It is not likely that they are telling an untruth. Some taxi-cabs must have been there. It is difficult to say how they came in. It appears that Mr. Basu asked many friends (Marwaris included) to supply their private cars. It is not impossible that some of these friends sent taxis among the private cars. We feel extremely doubtful however that taxis in any large numbers were used.

We learn that the use of taxi-cabs was a feature in the election in Calcutta and the neighbourhood. It appears that Messrs. Cook & Co. have a fleet of about 100 taxi-cabs. About 30 generally are on the road. They bear the number C. C. series. Quite a large number was sent out on election days with the metre removed and the C. C. number covered over by the numbers in 1880 series (1880 being their garage number). The suggestion was that Messrs. Cook & Co. supplied a large number of these cars to Babu Jatindra Nath Basu. It was suggested that Gobardhan Das one of the Directors of the Company, was a relative of Mr. Basu. This was denied by Mr. Basu and Mr. Basu deposed that he had read the rules and had impressed on his agents and workers not to use any taxi-cabs. The petitioner examined Tin Cowri Bosu of the firm of Messrs. Cook & Co., but he did not support the petitioner. His evidence was that the taxis were being got ready for Sitanath Pal (a candidate from another constituency) for his use on the 15th November and that on this particular date, viz., 14th, he sent out only 12 taxis to Sitanath Pal in response to a telepone message from Madan & Co., who ordered the cars for Sitanath Pal. He was positive that no cars were sent out for Babu Jatindra Nath Basu on this date. It appears, however, that Messrs. Cook & Co. are ready to hire out taxis as private cars (after taking the metre out) on advance payment and it seems to us not impossible that some of Mr. Basu's friends might have hired some taxis and sent them out mixed up with their own cars for Mr. Basu's use. The petitioner examined three taxi-drivers who were at the time in the employment of Messrs. Cook & Co., Bimala Kanta, Thakur Pada and Rajendra Pal, and they deposed that they drove out taxis which were used for Mr. Basu's election. According to two of them at least Revati Babu must have been aware of their evidence before the date on which further particulars were furnished; but they are not mentioned therein. Tin Cowri Bose deposes that at this time Rajendra was working elsewhere. Bimala Kanta and Thakur Pada may have driven taxi-cabs and worked in the election for Mr. Basu ; but their evidence that they went out 8 or 9 in number has to be accepted with caution. They are not men who are above influence. It is to be noted that Thkurpada was not even summoned.

The original list given in the petition was obtained by Revati Babu according to the doctor. Now there is some discrepancy in the evidence as to when Revati Babu obtained it. The learned Counsel for the respondent urges that the list must have been obtained after the petition was filed. The list is admitted to have been made by Jiban Krishna Saha, a canvasser of Mr. K. L. Datta. Jiban Krishna deposed that he had given the numbers to Mr. K. L. Datta; but Mr. K. L. Datta denied that he ever consulted Jiban Krishna. Revati Babu is said to have gone to Babu Hari Sankar Pal and the latter sent for Jiban, this list and gave it to Revati Babu. Jiban, however tells somewhat different story. We think that the petitioner got the list prepared by Jiban ; but there is no guarantee that the list was correctly prepared by Jiban. He was in service at one time in Spence's Hotel for two or three years and was dismissed. He professes even now not to know the reason for his dismissal.

Mr. K. L. Datta made a list himself. He wrote a letter to Mr. Roxburgh at once giving the numbers. It was marked "Private" and "Confidential". Mr. Roxburgh has deposed that 20 or 30 numbers were probably mentioned. Mr. Roxburgh did not preserve the letter. It would be unsafe to act upon the supposition that there were 20 or 30 taxis used. Passions at election time run high. Obviously Mr. Datta wrote to Mr. Roxburgh merely to score a point against Mr. Basu. It may be doubted whether he was serious since he did not keep a copy of the letter and did not intend to follow up his complaint. Another list comes from Pulin Behari Mitter, an election agent of Mr. K. L. Datta. He says he did not show the list to Mr. K. L. Datta. He produced a note-book from which he gave the numbers of 11 cars in 1880 series. Two of these numbers agree with 2 in the list made by Jiban Krishna Saha and mentioned in the original petition. We are not disposed to accept a list flung at us at the last moment. Mr. Basu has deposed that the feeling between him and Mr. K. L. Datta was embittered and it is noticeable that the lists or the effective evidence about taxi-cabs come from his side. The doctor's brother said he had made a list, but he lost it. The evidence is that taxi-cabs were noticed and the matter discussed, but there is a wide divergence between the observation of different people. Mr. K. L. Datta thinks 60 or 70 or even 100 taxis were used. Basanta Kumar Bose, an onlooker, was examined and he deposed that there was a discussion among canvassers, but he could see only one. The evidence of people that they saw 20 or 25 taxis is open to the objection that they may have seen 1 or 2 taxis coming backward and forward and jumped to the conclusion that 20 or 25 taxis were used. If taxis were used in such large quantities, there was nothing to prevent the workers of the rival parties in taking the number and comparing notes and ascertaining the exact number used. Our impression is, therefore, that some taxis were noticed, but not any large number of them and that the matter has been discussed since and the imagination of witnesses fed by such discussion until they have come to the conclusion that a very large number of taxis was used.

It appears that Mr. K. L. Datta had 120 private cars besides horse carriages and he polled only 996 votes. Mr. Jatindra Nath Basu had 110 motor-cars and about 30 carriages. There is no reason to believe that he could not command as many private vehicles as Mr. K. L. Datta. With 140 at his disposal he could have brought his entire body of supporters—1,121 in number—to the poll by putting about 8 voters in each vehicle and by using it only once. Estimates therefore by petitioner's witnesses to the effect that some vehicles carried no less than 15 or 20 voters in the course of the day seem to us to be entirely fanciful. Mr. J. N. Basu's majority over the next candidate—we may note—was 125. If we could believe from the evidence that 50 or 60 taxis were used, we might have held that this was sufficient to show that the result of the election was materially affected thereby, but even then the question would arise whether the voters carried in those taxis would not have voted as they did or would have refrained from voting—if the taxis had not been there. Assuming that 125 voters were so carried and that they voted for Mr. J. N. Basu, if they would have voted for him in any case how could it be said that the result of the election was materially affected by their carriage? We note in this connection that the alleged voters who were examined by petitioner were not questioned by him on this point. They were not asked for instance: "Would you have voted as you did if you had had to walk?" If again the vote has to be rejected as tainted it is not impertinent to ask whether the voter knew or had reason to believe that he was being taken to the poll in a forbidden conveyance. It may be a very hard matter to upset an election under section 5, Part II of Schedule 5 read with rule 44 ; but we are not concerned with that. Holding as we do on the evidence that only a very few taxi-cabs could have been used, our conclusion is that it is not established that the result of the election has been materially affected by such use or employment.

We hold therefore that this election petition should be dismissed. It is a case where some costs ought to be granted to the respondent. We recommend that the petitioner should pay the respondent's costs, Counsel's fees being estimated at 5 gold mohurs for each day of the hearing.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 5705A.—The 26th April 1924.—Rules for recruitment to the Bengal Civil Service (Executive) and the Subordinate Civil Service were published in notification No. 1650A.D., dated the 31st July 1913. The decision to substitute competitive examination for the previously existing system of nomination for the recruitment of these services, and the orders issued regarding the introduction of the time scales of pay, have rendered most of these rules inapplicable, and the following revised rules are published for general information :—

Rule 1.—Appointments to the Bengal Civil Service (Executive) and the Subordinate Civil Service will be made (1) by the promotion of selected officers who are already in Government service and (2) on the results of an annual examination.

Rule 2.—The Governor in Council will determine each year the number of appointments to be made during the year to each of these services.

Rule 3.—Of the number of appointments to be made in any one year, ordinarily 35 per cent. in the case of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive) and 20 per cent. in the case of the Subordinate Civil Service will be filled by the promotion of officers who are already in Government service. (iv) his general fitness for confirmation.

It delay in the fulfilment of any of these conditions beyond the normal priod of two ears will render a probationer liable to removal from the service.

Rule 6.—No member of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive) or the Subordinate il Service shall be dismissed otherwise than on the result of a judicial or formal partmental enquiry.

Rule 7.—No member of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive) or the Subordinate Civil Service, once he has been confirmed, shall be entitled to resign his appointment without the previous sanction of Government.

CIRCULAR ORDER No. 5 of 1924.

CRIMINAL.

IT having been brought to the notice of the High Court that considerable inconvenience is caused to the Government Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta, in consequence of clerks attached thereto being summoned from time to time by criminal courts to attend those Courts to produce draft messages and to give evidence in cases in which draft messages are required for examination, the following instructions are issued for the guidance of the subordinate criminal courts:—

(a) Section 95 of the Code of Criminal Procedure lays down the procedure in regard to the production of Post office or Telegraph office records before courts of criminal jurisdiction. Sub-section (3) of section 94 of the Code expressly exempts letters telegrams and parcels in the custody of the Postal or Telegraph authorities from the operation of sub-sections (1) and (2) of that section and a Court desiring the production of any such letter or telegram must proceed under section 95. The intention of this section appears to be that an officer should be deputed by the court concerned to the office where such letter or telegram may be, and that the Postal or Telegraph authorities should be directed to make over the document to the officer so deputed, who will then be in a position to prove that the document was produced from the custody of the Postal or Telegraph authorities.

(b) The attendance of Telegraph office clerks should be required only if they are in a position to prove the handwriting of the message or otherwise identify the writer or person who handed it in for transmission or to give material evidence on other relevant matters which cannot be proved from other sources.

Election case No. 5 of 1924.

A. Suhrawardy

versus

Maulvi Wahed Hossain.

Report.

This was a [illegible]tion of Dr. Suhrawardy against the election of Maulvi Wahed Hossain from th[illegible]rackpore Municipal Mahomedan Constituency. The ground taken was that his nom[illegible]n paper was improperly rejected by the Returning Officer.

On the petiti[illegible]ming up for hearing Dr. A. Suhrawardy filed a petition asking our leave to withdra[illegible]n his election petition. He submitted that he should not be made liable for any c[illegible]in this case. Maulvi Wahed Hossain consented to the petition of withdrawal a[illegible] not press for costs.

There we[illegible] other parties to the petition.

The only que[illegible]ion was whether the application was induced by any bargain or consideration which ought not to be allowed.

It appeared that Dr. A. Suhrawardy was elected to the Bengal Legislative Council from another constituency and he did not wish to press the present petition.

We examined Dr. Suhrawardy and Maulvi Wahed Hossain and were satisfied that the application was not induced by any bargain or consideration. We therefore allowed the petition to be withdrawn.

The petition was allowed to be withdrawn on 1st February 1924, the date fixed for the case. Notice of the withdrawal of the election petition of Dr. A. Suhrawardy was published in the Calcutta Gazette of 20th February 1924. No one has appeared up to now and applied to be substituted as a petitioner in place of the party withdrawing and continue the proceedings. We therefore submit the record of the case with our recommendation that the parties should bear their own costs.

Orders and Notifications by the Governor of Bengal, the Government of Bengal, the High Court, Government Treasury, etc.

ORDERS BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

No. 7924A.—The 28th June 1924.—Whereas the Commissioners appointed under rule 36 (2) (a) of the Bengal Electoral Rules to enquire into the petition presented by Babu Shyam Chand Basak against the election of Rai Pyari Lal Das Bahadur to the Bengal Legislative Council by the Dacca City (non-Muhammadan) constituency have after due enquiry reported to the Governor that the returned candidate Rai Pyari Lal Das Bahadur was duly elected and have recommended that the petition presented by Babu Shyam Chand Basak be dismissed.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by rule 45 (3) of the said rules, the Governor is pleased to order that the said petition be dismissed and that Rai Pyari Lal Das Bahadur be deemed to have been duly elected to the said Council.

The Governor is further pleased to order that in accordance with the recommendations of the said Commissioners the petitioner Babu Shyam Chand Basak shall pay respondent No. 1 (Rai Pyari Lal Das Bahadur) Rs. 1,500 as pleader's fees and also the costs incurred by the respondent No. 1 in court and process fees and witnesses' expenses.

The following report of the said Commissioners is published in accordance with rule 45 (3) of the said rules.

A. N. MOBERLY,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

Report.

The petitioner and the 3 respondents were the four candidates for a seat in the Bengal Legislative Council, to represent the Non-Muhammadan Constituency of the City of Dacca at the last General Election held in November 1923. The result of the election was that the respondent No. 1, Rai Bahadur Pyari Lal Das, M.B.E., was returned as the successful candidate. The petitioner and the other two respondents stood respectively 2nd, 3rd and 4th in respect of the votes secured by them. The majority obtained by respondent No. 1 over the petitioner, according to the Election Petition, consisted of 29 votes. The petitioner, by his present Election Petition, seeks to have the Election of the respondent No. 1 set aside, and, further, to have it declared that he (the petitioner) had been duly elected. The petitioner further prays that if the irregularities alleged by him be found to have vitiated the whole Election, the whole of the Election might be set aside. In support of the Election Petition, the petitioner alleged certain corrupt practices and non-compliance with certain regulations in the Bengal Electoral Regulations.

The respondent No. 1 traversed the petitioner's allegations, both with respect to corrupt practices and non-compliance with certain regulations. The other 2 respondents had also filed written statements, but they did not subsequently take any part in the actual enquiry. It may, however, be noted that the respondent No. 2, Dhirendra Chandra Ray substantially supported the petitioner's allegations in the latter's Election petition.

Before proceeding further, we may mention certain matters, in respect of which we had either reserved our opinion, or which had transpired during the enquiry.

4. On the 11th of April last, when we sat for the first time to settle the points for determination, the petitioner had presented a petition, alleging three more instances of corrupt practices on behalf of the respondent No. 1. We, however, declined to entertain the petition, having regard to the period of limitation prescribed under Rule 32 (1) (a) of the Bengal Electoral Rules, the above petition was time-barred.

5. Another point relates to the prayer made by respondent No. 2 in his written statement, claiming the seat for himself, in case, both the respondent No. 1 and the petitioner were declared unsuccessful. We declined to entertain this prayer, having regard to the proviso to Rule 42 (1) of the Bengal Electoral Rules, which had not been complied with.

6. There were also certain recriminating allegations in paragraph 17 and part of paragraph 18 of the written statement of respondent No. 2, which we declined to consider, as the proviso to Rule 42 (1) had not been complied with.

7. On the 19th of May last (the date on which we commenced the actual enquiry, i.e., the recording of evidence) the respondent No. 1, by a petition, prayed for the alteration of point No. 9 for determination. The main ground for that petition was that, as the official marks on the ballot papers were to be kept secret under the Bengal Electoral Regulations, those papers could not be inspected by the petitioner and that, therefore, the petitioner's allegation with regard to the absence of official marks on the back of some of the ballot papers could not be enquired into. In our opinion, there was no substance in this petition since Regulation XXIX (2), enjoining secrecy of the official marks, obviously was applicable only when there was no enquiry on an Election Petition. When, however, such an enquiry was ordered on an Election Petition, in which the very question of non-observance of the secrecy referred to above was raised, the official marks could not be kept secret during that enquiry.

8. We may also mention that in the course of our enquiry we inspected the Wari Girls' School (one of the polling stations) and one Iswar Thakur's house, on the 5th of June last, in presence of the petitioner's learned Counsel and Pleaders for respondent No. 1. We shall have occasion to refer to these places in this report, and we inspected them, so as to give us a better idea of the localities.

9. It is, further, necessary to note here that our estimate as to the credibility of many of the important witnesses has been affected appreciably by the admitted fact that the respondent No. 1 and his alleged agent, Nabendra Nath Bysak, have been on bad terms with respondent No 2, Dhirendra Chandra Ray, in connection with public matters. For instance, it is in the evidence of petitioner's witness No. 16 Taposh Babu, a pleader, that at the Municipal Election before last, in the contest for the Chairmanship between the late Nawab Yusuf and respondent No. 1, who had eventually succeeded, respondent No. 2 sympathised with the Nawab. The same witness has also stated that at the Council Election held in 1920, respondents 1 and 2 were both candidates, but the respondent No. 1 was elected, respondent No. 2 having withdrawn. It further appears from the evidence of petitioner's witness No. 25 that at the last Municipal Election, in the contest for the Chairmanship between Mr. Nazimuddin and respondent No. 2, in which the former succeeded, respondent No. 1 and Nabendra Nath Bysak had supported Mr Nazimuddin. It is also in evidence that there had been several Municipal Election suits between the petitioner and Nabendra. It is further in the evidence of respondent No. 1 that there were two parties in the Dacca Municipality, one of which is headed by the respondent No. 1, and the other by the respondent No. 2.

As to the feeling between Nabendra and respondent No. 2, it has been particularly bitter since last August. Both of them were Municipal Commissioners at the time. It appears that in August last, in consequence of a letter received from the District Magistrate, a resolution was moved by respondent No. 2 at a meeting of the Municipal Commissioners for the removal of Nabendra and two other Commissioners from the Municipal Board. Respondent No 1 apparently did not assent to the resolution, but moved an amendment, and further interviewed the Divisional Commissioner, to bring about an amicable settlement, and, at the instance of Nabendra, respondent No. 1 also interviewed Sir Surendra Nath Banerjee, the then Minister in charge. Eventually, the above resolution resulted in the removal under the orders of the Government, of Nabendra and the other two Commissioners from the Municipal Board. Nabendra had since then instituted a suit against the above order of removal.

We have thus been influenced in estimating the credibility or otherwise of many of the important witnesses, who are in some way or other closely connected with respondent No. 2, as it was perfectly clear to our minds, from the written statement of respondent No. 2 that he was substantially supporting the petitioner's case, although, as already noted, respondent No. 2 did not take any ostensible part in the actual trial of the Respondent No. 2, as the evidence shows, is a very influential person. It is in evidence, that he is the only son of Babu Ananda Chandra Ray (of leading Pleader of Dacca), who has been described as being very rich and holding a unique position in Eastern Bengal. We are, therefore, perfectly satisfied, having regard to surrounding circumstances, that the position and influence of respondent No. 2, and possibly his wealth, had been placed at the petitioner's disposal, in order to help him in prosecuting his Election Petition, and that this was done in consequence of the bickerings, to which we have referred.

10. With these preliminary observations, we now proceed to deal with the allegations made in the Election Petition. These allegations will appear sufficiently from the first nine points, which were settled by us on the 17th April last for determination during the enquiry. They are as noted below :—

"(1) Was Babu Nabendra Nath Bysak, an agent for respondent No. 1 at the

(2) Did Babu Nabendra Nath Bysak, on the 19th of November 1923, pay a sum of Rs. 1,200 or thereabout, with one Sitanath Karmakar of Jogina [illegible] 3, for the purpose of securing votes for the respondent No. 1 or for inducing the voters to refrain from voting for other candidates ? Was a sum of Rs. [illegible] evidence of about out of that said sum set apart for paying poor voters of the above ward, and was the balance of Rs. 1,000, or thereabout, paid to meet the cost of supplying electric lights for the Thateri Bazar Road in the above ward ?

(3) Was a sum of Rs. 300, or thereabout, paid at Goailara Lane by the said Babu Nabendra Nath Bysak on the 21st of November 1923, on behalf of respondent No. 1 to one Akoo Chandra Bysak (voter No. 808 of the published list) of holding No. 2 of Goailara Lane of Ward No. 3 ? Was this payment made to secure votes of the voters of that ward, as well as of others of the locality, and was the above sum paid for repairs of the Thakurbari of the idol "Radharaman Jee" of the voters of holding No. 2 at Goailara Lane, Ward No. 3, and has the above sum been actually spent in repairing that Thakurbari ?

(4) Was a sum of Rs. 100, or thereabout, paid on the 21st of November 1923, by Babus Gour Chandra Das, Radha Raman Das, Gokul Chandra Das of Enayetganj, Ward No. 7 in the house of Thakurdas Rishi of Chowdhury Bazar, Ward No. 7 to Mohini Rishi, Thakurdas Rishi, Jarasindhu Rishi and Purna Rishi of Chowdhuri Bazar of the said ward ? Was the payment made to secure the votes of these Rishis for respondent No. 1 ?

(5) Did Babu Nabendra Nath Bysak, as agent for respondent No. 1, on the 19th of November 1923, take a vow in the Thakurbari of Sita Nath Karmakar of Joginagar in Ward No. 3 to make a further payment of Rs. 800, or thereabout, to meet the cost of supplying electric light and extending connection to the Thakurbaris, in addition to the sum of Rs. 1,200, or thereabout, mentioned in point No. 2? Was this promise of a further payment of Rs. 800, or thereabout, made in order to induce the voters of that locality to vote for respondent No. 1 and not to vote for any other candidate?

(6) Did Amrita Pal of Puran Moghultuly on the 22nd of November 1923 tell Prabhat Chandra Sen, Kaviraj of that quarter, that respondent No. 1 had promised to reclaim an old tank, described and bounded, as mentioned in the petitioner's petition of to-day's date, if the people of that quarter would give votes for respondent No. 1? Did respondent No. 1 wait in his gari whilst Amrita Pal went and spoke to Pabhat Chandra Sen as above?

(7) Did some one personate one Haran Chandra Chatterjee, voter No. 649 of the published list, and did that person vote as a registered voter of Sashi Mohan Basak's Lane in Ward No 3? Is it a fact that Haran Chandra Chatterjee had not been heard of for many years, and that he was not at Dacca on the date of voting?

(8) Was an attempt made on behalf of the respondent No. 1 to have one Kanchan Muchi of Ward No. 5 who had been long dead, personated by some persons in order to have Kanchan Muchi's vote recorded for respondent No. 1?

(9) Has the Election of the respondent No. 1 been vitiated, or the result of the election materially affected by any of the irregularities, omissions, defects, or non-compliance with the Electoral Rules and Regulations referred to, or alleged in paragraph 6 (a)—(e) of the petitioner's Election Petition?"

It was conceded by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that there was no evidence with respect to points 5, 6 and 8, and we must hold, therefore, that the accusations, as appearing under these points, have not been proved.

12. With regard to point No. 1, as to whether Babu Nabendra Nath Bysak was an agent for respondent No. 1, in view of our finding on point No. 5, and further of the conclusions we shall presently record with respect to points 2 and 3, it has become unnecessary to consider the point No. 1.

13. Turning next to point No. 7, it was alleged that some one personating himself as Haran Chandra Chatterjee (voter No. 649 of the Electoral Roll) had registered his vote at the polling station (Ward No. 3). It was, further, stated that Haran had not been heard of for many years, and that he was not at Dacca on the polling date. The evidence in support of these allegations is, in our opinion, exceedingly meagre and inconclusive. The witnesses examined on this point are Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5 and 11 on the petitioner's side. As to No. 11, Haran's brother, he himself was not at Dacca last Kartik and Agrahayan, the Election having taken place on the 23rd November last (corresponding to 8th Agrahayan last). The evidence of the other witnesses, at the utmost, only proves that they did not see Haran on the date of Election. This does not, however, necessarily prove that Haran was not at Dacca on that date, or that he did not himself register his vote at the polling station. It is noteworthy that the petitioner did not cite Haran, who would have been the best witness on the point, nor has any reason been assigned for the omission to have called him as a witness. We may also note that the allegation as to Haran having been heard of for many years, cannot be true, as the evidence shows that Haran has been working as a servant at Calcutta, and that he came to Dacca, in any rate, last Magh to get married. There is also divergence in evidence as to the period for which he had been away from Dacca, which varies from 1 to 7 years.

We accordingly hold that the above allegation of personation has not been proved.

14. (a) The next point we propose to deal with is No. 9. It related to non-compliance with the Rules and Regulations under the Bengal Electoral Rules and Regulations, as set forth in paragraphs 6 (a) to 6 (e) of the Election Petition. During the enquiry, however, evidence has been adduced in respect of non-compliance, detailed only in paragraphs 6 (b), (c) and (d) of the petition.

(b) With regard to the allegations in paragraphs 6 (b), it was alleged therein that on some of the ballot papers the official mark had not been put on the back, and that, therefore, Regulation XLVII (1) (a) had been infringed. We were, on the basis thereof, asked to reject such ballot papers, in respect of respondent No. 1, as had not the official mark on their back, and thus to ascertain if the respondent No. 1 could still maintain his majority of 29 votes over the petitioner. One of us was inclined to enter into the scrutiny of the ballot papers of all the candidates, and then to exclude such of them as did not bear the official mark on the back. No doubt this would have been the only course, in fairness to all the candidates, had we been satisfied that some of the ballot papers, in respect of respondent No. 1, did not bear the official mark on the back. All of us, however, eventually came to the conclusion that all the ballot papers with regard to respondent No. 1 had sufficiently recognizable official mark on the back. The official mark is the letter "B." One of the polling officers, Babu Atul Behari Dutt, who, on the special prayer made by the petitioner on the 13th instant (towards the close of the arguments of the learned Counsel for the petitioner), was examined on the 14th idem, has described the process by which this mark was put. From his evidence it appears that the ballot paper was put inside the press (Exhibit I) with the back of the paper turned up, and that, by the pressure on the paper made by the officer, the impression produced on the back of the paper was the letter "B" in relief, whilst that on the front of the paper was the same letter, hollow. Now, it appears that on some of the ballot papers in question, the letter "B" in relief appears on the front, and not on the back, and it was thus contended that those papers should have been rejected by the Returning Officer, and should now be excluded by us. We are unable to concede to this contention or to grant the request made. The question to be considered—vide "Rogers on Election," page 148—is whether "looking at each ballot paper, there was evidence of an intention to make the official mark, and of a recognizable official mark, upon its back." Now, the ballot papers, in respect of respondent No. 1, which bear the official mark "B" in relief on the front, and not on the back, still bear, and that too, distinctly part of the same official mark "B," though hollow. It is thus clear to us that there is evidence of an intention to make the official mark, and of a recognizable official mark, upon the back of each of these papers, though through inadvertence these papers were not put in the press with their back turned up, so that, by the pressure of the press, the impression produced on them could have been the letter "B" in relief. There cannot be the slightest doubt, however, that there has been substantial compliance with the Regulation XXXII of the Bengal Electoral Regulations in respect of such of the ballot papers, the validity whereof has been questioned. The learned Counsel for the petitioner urged strenuously before us that the test to be applied, as referred to in the above passage in "Rogers on Election," was based on section 13 of the English Ballot Act, and that the Rules and Regulations under the Bengal Electoral Rules and Regulations did not contain any provision corresponding to section 13 of the English Ballot Act. We are, however, of opinion that under Rule 44 (1) (c) of the Bengal Electoral Rules, we have to consider whether the irregularity in question has materially affected the result of the Election. Bearing this in mind, therefore, as also the fact that both in England and in India it is imperative, as a general rule of law, that a ballot paper not bearing on its back the official mark, must be rejected, the test referred to in the above passage is equally applicable in considering the effect of such an irregularity during an Election in this country. Thus, for reasons already noted by us, the irregularity in question cannot possibly be said to have materially affected the result of the Election.

(c) With reference to the allegation in paragraph 6 (c) of the Election Petition, which may for the sake of brevity be described as tiffin incident, it is to the effect that on the 23rd of November last, the polling date at the Wari Girls' School (Ward No. III) the two polling officers—Munsifs Babus Jotindra Kumar Bose and Jamini Kishore Ray suspended polling business for more than 15 minutes between 2 P.M., and 3 P.M., in order to have tiffin, and that thus there had been an infringement of Regulation XV. There is no dispute as to the Local Government having appointed 10 A.M. as the hour at which the polling was to commence and 3 P.M., as that at which it was to cease on the above date. The case for respondent No. 1 was that there was no suspension of business before 3 P.M., and that the officers had tiffin after 3 P.M., at which hour the polling station gates were closed. The most important witnesses on the point under consideration are the 2 polling officers, one of whom, Babu Jotindra Kumar Bose, was examined by the petitioner, and the other, Babu Jamini Kishore Ray, by respondent No. 1. So far as Jotindra Babu's evidence is concerned, he does not help us much or at all, for he cannot remember when he and the other Munsif had tea—according to him, it might have been before or after 3 P.M. He has, further, stated that he does not remember when he had tea, he does not remember whether the doors (of the polling station) doors were open when he was having tea. He is, however, positive in stating that no one came to have his vote recorded during the time he took over his tea. On the other hand, Jamini Babu is absolutely certain that he had his tea after the enclosure gate had been closed at 3 P.M. There is unfortunately, however, some discrepancy in the evidence of these two officers, as to whether they had their tea in their own respective polling rooms or in Jotindra Babu's polling room. Further Jamini Babu could not remember whether there was any enclosure gate on the Northern side, the one to which he had deposed to being on the south side. This is no doubt due to the fact that he was in charge of the polling booth on the south and had not probably noticed the other enclosure gate on the Nothern side, which would be near Jotindra Babu's room.

The other witnesses examined on this point on the petitioner's side are Nos. 9, 10, 13, 16, 17 and 19. The respondent No. 1 has also examined one Gobinda Lal Ganguli (a clerk of the District Magistrate's office), who acted at the time as a clerk of the polling officer, Jotindra Babu. None of these witnesses is really reliable. So far as the clerk Gobinda Lal is concerned, he contradicts both the polling officers on certain points. It may also be noted that he and his father live in a house rented from one Prasanna Babu, son-in-law of respondent No. 1.

With regard to the remaining witnesses on the petitioner's side we note briefly our reasons for our holding them to be unreliable. Witness No. 9, Radha Ballab Bysak, has made self-contradictory statements as to whether he went home or kept strolling along the road when, as he says, he did not find the Polling Officer on his arrival at the polling-station at 2 P.M.

Petitioner's witness No. 10, Chitya Binode Bosu, has admittedly been owing Rs. 1,500 to the Dacca Bank for over three years, and he further states that the petitioner is the Managing Director of that Bank, and that it is the duty of the Director to decide as to who should be sued for by the Bank. Further, he has mentioned the hours, by guess. Moreover, we entertain serious doubts as to whether this witness really went to the polling station that day, for, although he has first stated that he had found the door of the main building closed, he eventually admitted that he did not notice the doors of the polling room, nor did he know which the polling room was. He has also made certain other statements towards the end of his cross-examination, which tend to show that he did not really go to the polling station on that day.

As to witness No. 12, Ram Das Bysak, he has related a story which is at variance with the petitioner's case. According to him, when he did not see the Presiding Officer after 2 P.M., he sat down inside the enclosure, and after some time when he went to have his vote recorded, he was prevented from doing so by some Chaprasis, with the result that he returned home at dusk.

Witness No. 13, Lalit Mohan Bysak, would state that he arrived at the polling station at 2-15 or 2-30 P.M., and finding both doors of the verandah shut, he went home and returned at about 3 or at 10 or 15 minutes before or after 3, when he found the enclosure gate closed. This witness's statements, also towards the end of his cross-examination, lead us to doubt whether the story related by him is true, for he would state that, even if he had known that the gate would be closed at 3 P.M., he would have still gone home, as his house was only 10 minutes' walk from the polling station. When questioned as to the necessity for going home, he at first stated that he went on business; next he said that he had gone home to have a drink of water; and finally he stated that he had gone home to fetch a paper, but did not remember what the paper was.

The next witness No. 16, Babu Tapesh Chandra Banerjee, Pleader, was admittedly the polling agent of respondent No. 2, and was, further, admittedly very friendly with that respondent. Apart from this, this witness could not swear whether, when Jatindra Babu had tiffin, the door of his polling room was open or closed. Now, the question as to whether the polling station enclosure gates were closed before or after the polling officers had their tea or tiffin, is of the utmost importance, for it is the case of both parties that the polling station enclosure gates were closed at 3 P.M., as prescribed by the Government. With regard to this question, then, Tapesh Babu's evidence should be considered carefully. According to him, he left Jatindra Babu's polling room for tiffin between 2 and 3 P.M., and was away for 10 or 15 minutes. He went on to state in his examination-in-chief that it was not very long after his return that the enclosure gates were closed—that by no means it was more than half an hour, and that probably it was 15 minutes after his return. In his cross-examination, however, he stated that when he returned after tiffin he had no occasion to examine whether the enclosure gates were open or closed, and that, therefore, the above statement of his on the point was based on inference. Finally, in re-examination he added that he did not notice whether the enclosure gates were open or closed on his return after tiffin. Having regard to these varying statements, it is impossible for us to hold that the bare statement made by Tapesh Babu as to his having left the polling room between 2 and 3 P.M. for tiffin, can be safely relied upon.

With regard to witness No. 17, Babu Sarat Kumar Chakravarty, a retired Pleader of the Civil Courts, Dacca, his evidence is not satisfactory either. In the first place, he would state that he was in the northern room with the Presiding Officer Babu Jamini Kishore Ray. As a matter of fact, that officer occupied the Southern room, and Jatindra Babu occupied the northern room. Then again, he could not state how many enclosure gates there were, though he thought there was only one door on the West side of the compound. In the ordinary sense of the word "compound," therefore, the door referred to by him would be the door leading into the compound from the road, but we saw no such door at the time of our local inspection. It may also be noted that admittedly he had stated the hour referred to by him, by guess. Finally, this witness, as admitted by him, was not an adherent of many of the political views held by respondent No. 1, or many of the members in the Council.

There remains only the witness No. 19, Jogendra Kishore Roy. For reasons which will be mentioned presently in considering point No. 2, this witness is absolutely untrustworthy and unreliable, and we cannot accept his testimony at all.

We may further mention the petitioner's witness No. 20, Paresh Chandra Das Gupta (Chief Agent for the National Insurance Company, for Eastern Bengal), who has deposed to his presence at the polling station in question from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. on the polling date, was not asked a single question about the tiffin incident. In view, however, of the estimate of this witness's evidence with respect to point No. 2, we should have in all probability refused to rely on his testimony, had he deposed to the tiffin incident, in support of the petitioner's allegation. The petitioner, however, could not have anticipated that estimate, and should have questioned Paresh with regard to the tiffin incident as well.

Some stress was laid by the learned Counsel for the petitioner on the non-examination by respondent No. 1 of one Babu Upendra Gupta. We do not, however, attach any importance to this omission, as this witness had, in the first instance, been cited by the petitioner, and it was only on his non-examination by the petitioner that the respondent No. 1 cited this witness.

For the reasons set forth above, therefore, we are unable to hold that the two polling officers in question suspended polling business between 2 and 3 P.M., as alleged by the petitioner, or that they had tea or tiffin between those hours.

(d) With regard to the allegation in paragraph 6 (e) of the Election Petition, it related to the alleged infringement of Regulation XXXIII of the Bengal Electoral Regulations, it being stated that at the polling station in Ward No. 7 the Polling Officer, in almost all the cases, had seen the marks put by the voters on the ballot papers against the names of candidates, for whom they had voted, and that consequently the secrecy of voting enjoined by the above Regulation had not been observed. Three witnesses have been examined on this point, two of them being voters and the third, Babu Gyanendra Narayan Choudhury (a pleader), being a polling agent for respondent No. 2. Gyan Babu's evidence does not show that the Polling Officer saw the marks put by the voters on the ballot papers. All that Gyan Babu has stated is that some time after the polling had begun, the Polling Officer accompanied the voters, when the latter went from the polling room to behind a black board, to put their marks on the papers. The Polling Officer may have done this to expedite matters, as he was bound to see that the official mark had been put on the ballot papers.

As regards the other two witnesses—voters Nos. 24 and 25 on the side of the petitioner, both of them, admittedly, canvassed for respondent No. 2 at the last Council Election. Then again, it is not clear from the evidence of either of these two witnesses whether the Polling Officer actually saw the mark which had been put by these witnesses on ballot papers against the candidates, for whom they had voted. According to witness No. 24, he inferred that the Polling Officer had been looking at the "X" mark, because that officer asked the witness to fill up the paper and put it in the ballot box, after which the witness happened to look at the Polling Officer and noticed that the latter was looking at the witness. The reason given by the witness No. 25 is equally unconvincing, it being to the effect that, when the was putting the "X" mark the Polling Officer was standing near him.

The evidence on this point is, therefore, in our opinion, meagre, unsatisfactory and inconclusive, and we accordingly hold that the allegation under consideration has not been proved.

In connection with this point we may also note that, as the Polling Officer in question was eventually called at the instance of the petitioner, and was examined, as already noted by us, on the 14th instant, the petitioner could have, with the permission of the Court, easily questioned the Polling Officer (even though he had been originally cited by respondent No. 1, though not examined) also with regard to the allegation contained in paragraph 6 (e) of the Election Petition, but he did not do so. It was also unfortunate that it did not strike any of us at the time to question the Polling Officer on the point

We must also note here that, although with respect to the allegation [illegible]graph 6 (b) and part of paragraph 6 (c) of the Election Petition, the petitioner's veri[illegible]on in that petition contained the declaration that these [illegible]ons were true to his k[illegible]edge, the petitioner did not examine himself. In our [illegible], the petitioner shou[illegible]have examined himself, as various other facts might hav[illegible]en elicited from h[illegible]uring the cross-examination.

15. We shall now deal with point No. 2 r[illegible]ised by the [illegible]ioner's allega[illegible]t on or about the 19th of November last Nabendra Nath Bysak h[illegible] behalf of r[illegible]dent No. 1, deposited a sum of Rs. 1,200 or thereabout with one [illegible] Nath Karm[illegible]r, of Joginagar (Ward No. III), for the purpose of securing votes fo[illegible]sponde[illegible]No. 1, or for inducing the voters to refrain from voting for other candid[illegible]rther, been stated that out of the above sum, Rs. 200 was set apart for pa[illegible]oters, and the balance of Rs. 1,000 or thereabout was spent in meeting the costs of su[illegible]g electric lights for Thateri Bazar Road in the above ward.

It may incidentally be noted here that point No. 5, which, as we [illegible] area has not been proved, related to a vow said to have been made by Nabe[illegible] in Sita Nath Karmakar's Thakurbari, to make a further payment of Rs[illegible] the costs of supplying electric lights and extending connection to [illegible]ari. In the Election Petition this vow or promise was stated to be a distinct transaction by itself. During the enquiry, however, evidence was given to [illegible] of this promise was at first made at the same time and place as those at which the [illegible]ment of Rs. 1,200 was said to have been made, and that the vow in the Thakurbari (about which, however, there is no evidence) followed the promise. In our opinion, the variation in the allegation with regard to the time and place of the alleged promise is material, as it tends to show further development in the story since the presentation of the Election Petition. Now the story as to the actual payment of Rs. 1,200 rests primarily on the evidence of P. W. 19, Jogendra Kishore Roy, and P. W. 22, Nripendra Chandra Roy (a Homeopathic Doctor). The story related by both these witnesses is, in our opinion, almost dramatic in its nature. Briefly, according to Jogendra, he had gone to see Iswar Thakur on the morning of the 19th November to enquire what progress had been made with regard to votes for respondent No. 2. Some statements were said to have been made by Iswar to Jogendra, but they were held by us to be inadmissible, as Iswar had not been called. We shall note presently our ground for that refusal. Jogendra would, further, state that, as arranged with Iswar, the former hid himself in one of the latter's rooms, and saw, through a window, the arrival of Nabendra and Murali Pal and others in the verandah of Iswar's temple-house, which was at a distance of 7 or 8 cubits, and was visible from the room where Jogendra was seated. It was further stated by Jogendra that Nabendra then paid Rs. 1,200, with the object and for the purpose alleged, to Sita Nath Karmakar and made a promise of further payment of Rs. 800.

The other witness Nripendra relates more or less the same story. According to him, he happened to have been paying a professional visit at the time to the family of Brindaban, Iswar Thakur's brother, and had watched the incident and had heard the conversation, whilst he was seated in Brindaban's verandah which, according to him, was 5 or 6 cubits from Iswar's temple-house. The Commissioners, however, as a result of the local inspection, are of opinion, that the distance was about 15 feet.

Jogendra's story is, further, to the effect that, after having witnessed the above incident in the verandah of Iswar's temple-house, he went and saw Murali Pal, who was said to have made certain statements, in consequence whereof Jogendra saw respondent No 2, and as a result of consultation between these two it was, as stated by Jogendra, then decided not to pay any money, and also to secure some persons who were not known to respondent No. 1 or to his party, and to take them to Murali Pal's house, to hear what Murali had to say, so that they might be witnesses, in case there were to be subsequently any Election litigation. Efforts were said to have been made to secure two Sub-Deputy Collectors, but it was said that they were not found. Eventually, Jogendra Kishore Ray, accompanied by witness No. 18, Sasanka Mohan Das Gupta (a pleader), witness No. 20, Paresh Chandra Das Gupta (Chief Agent for the National Insurance Company), and one Rajendra Kumar Bose (a Zamindar) went to Murali Pal's house at about 5-30 P.M. the same day, and it was stated by them that Murali made certain statements, as a result whereof on the same evening at about 7-30 or 8 P.M., Jogendra, Rajendra Kumar Bose, Paresh Chandra Das Gupta, and Babu Kshitish Chandra Neogi, M.L.A., went to Gosainbari. Here again it was stated that Murali made a certain statement, whereupon Jogendra was alleged to have stated that he had not brought money, and that he could not commit himself, without consulting respondent No. 2.

Before proceeding further to consider the character of the evidence of the above witnesses, we may note here our reasons for refusing to admit the statements said to have been made by Iswar to Jogendra. Since Iswar had not been called by the petitioner any statement made by him was obviously in the nature of hearsay. No doubt, if properly proved, such statements were relevant, with reference to sections 6, 7 and 9 of the Evidence Act, as urged by the learned Counsel for the petitioner. The learned Counsel, however, relied on section 19 of the Evidence Act, to prove such statements as admissions, and he further cited the cases in I. L. R. 5 Mad. 239, and 20 Indian Cases, 792, in support of his contention. In our opinion, section 19 has no application to the alleged statements made by Iswar, for he was not a person whose position or liability it was necessary to prove as against any party to this enquiry. In this view, then, the rulings cited by the learned Counsel did not help him either. Nor is there anything in Rule 44 (1) of the Bengal Electoral Rules or Item No. 3, Part II, Schedule V, to the said Rules, to render Iswar's statements admissible, as was attempted to be urged by the learned Counsel for the petitioner, since this is not a case in which Iswar stands on his trial for having received (with others) some gratification, as alleged by the petitioner.

At this stage we may also dispose of the question as to whether the statements said to have been made by Murali to Jogendra on the morning of the 19th of November last, and to Jogendra, Paresh, Rajendra and Sasanka on the afternoon of the said day, and again to Jogendra, Paresh, Rajendra and Babu Kshitish Chandra Neogi, M. L. A., on the evening of that day are admissible in evidence. We had admitted these statements during the enquiry as we were given to understand that Murali would be examined and would bear out the statements, said to have been made by him. Murali, however, was not examined till the 5th of June last, i.e., several days after the above witnesses had been examined. The delay in examining Murali was attributed to illness. In fact, we had to examine him at his own house, as he had produced two certificates from the Civil Surgeon, Dacca, to prove his inability to appear before the Court.

The evidence of Murali, petitioner's witness No. 29, is to the effect that he neither remembered nor knew of any other incident in connection with Thateri Bazar and Joginagar votes, except the one in Gosainbari. He further states that he did not remember whether he had seen Jogendra on the morning or on the afternoon of that day. As regards the Gosainbari incident, all that he has said is that, in consequence of what the voters present said, Jogendra at first offered Rs. 2,100, and eventually Rs. 2,200, as far as he could remember, and that Murali then left the place, saying that there was no need for his being there, as there was a talk of money matters. It was urged by the learned Pleader, Rai Bahadur Sasanka Kumar Ghosh, for respondent No. 1, that, having regard to the above evidence of Murali, the statements said to have been made by Murali to the witnesses mentioned above were inadmissible under section 136 of the Indian Evidence Act. In our opinion, this contention must prevail, as those statements of Murali could have, in the circumstances, only been admissible, if we had permitted the learned Counsel for the petitioner, as requested by him, to have cross-examined Murali, under section 154 of the Evidence Act. We, however, refused to grant such permission, as we were perfectly satisfied that Jogendra, Paresh and Sasanka Das Gupta could not be relied upon and that, therefore, there was nothing to show that Murali was an untruthful witness. It may be mentioned here that Murali is a well-to-do man, who once paid super-tax, and we cannot, therefore, conceive that his testimony could have been gained over for any pecuniary consideration. From his evidence, it further appears that he is well disposed towards the petitioner, and had asked people to vote for the latter, and even went to the polling station (Ward No. 3) on behalf of the petitioner, though, on account of great confusion and lateness of the hour, he did not record his vote. Then again, it would appear that he not only refused to support the Election of respondent No. 1 when he was approached on the subject by that respondent and Babu Jogendra Nath Ray (who was at the time M. L. C.), but that he had also requested the respondent No. 1 to withdraw from the Election, as there was some previous arrangement that this respondent would not stand at the last Election. Another reason was further assigned by Murali for this request—the President has noted it marginally at page 74 of Murali's deposition recorded by him—but we disallowed the statement containing the reason, as it contained a further serious charge or corrupt practice against respondent No. 1, which we could not entertain at that stage of the enquiry, no mention thereof having been made in the Election Petition.

Even if these statements, said to have been made by Murali to the witnesses in question, had been held by us to have been admissible, we should have still refused to have acted upon them, in view of the fact that Murali had contradicted the witnesses, at any rate, as already noted, and we see no reason for disbelieving Murali on the whole.

It has already been noted by us that witnesses Jogendra, Paresh and Sasanka Mohan Das Gupta cannot be relied upon, and we now proceed to set forth our reasons for this conclusion.

As to Jogendra Kishore Ray, he is not only a cousin of the respondent No. 2, but he was also his canvasser at the last Election and was admittedly on intimate terms with that respondent. Further, admittedly, his present house, which he built about 8 or 10 years ago, stood on some land which was a gift of Babu Ananda Chandra Ray (father of respondent No. 2), no deed of gift having been executed yet. It was also admitted by him that before he built his present house he lived for 5 or 6 years in Ananda Babu's house, and that before that he lived in the house of Ananda Babu's step-brother, Nripendra Nath Ray. In addition to these matters, which undoubtedly show that Jogendra practically is living on the bounties of the family of respondent No. 2, it is further very clear from Jogendra's evidence that he has made two statements which, if they do not amount to perjury, still border on perjury. One of these statements related to his petrol business which, it was first alleged by him, belonged to him. It was, however, after some fencing and prevarication, admitted by him that the business stood in the name of respondent No. 2, and the explanation sought to be offered was that, as this business was in the nature of agency or sub-agency under Shaw Wallace & Co., respondent No. 2 had, at the instance of the witness, negotiated with that firm, and that consequently, the business, although belonging to the witness, had continued remain in the name of respondent No. 2. We are not prepared to accept this explanation, for the simple reason that it was not given in a natural way.

The other statement made by this witness, which borders on perjury, ref the question as to whether the witness Tapesh Babu was his pleader in a suit bro by Satish Das (son of the sister of the wife of respondent No. against the witness in ject of a strip of land (sweeper's passage leading to the house). Jogendra led any knowledge as to Tapesh Babu having appeared in the on his behalf. W ave it, however, from the evidence of Babu Gyanendra Narayan udhury, who w mit-tedly Jogendra's pleader in that case, that this pleader had tually hande the brief to Tapesh Babu, and further that Jogendra had insti Gyan Babu was present at consultations between Gyan Babu and Tapesh Babu.

With respect to the above two statements of Jogendra, urged the learned Counsel for the petitioner that they were not material the present case. We are, however, unable to concede to this. As to ent relating to the petrol business, it was sought by the learned pleader fo respondent No. 1 to prove that this business did not belong to this witness, was in reality a man of straw, and entirely dependent on respondent No. 2 and his family, and was not, therefore, reliable. Then, with regard to the other stateme it was material for the purpose of showing the intimate relations betwee and the respondent No. 2 as well as Jogendra.

Not only do we entirely disbelieve Jogendra, but we, further, hold that the story related by him is inherently improbable. It is in the evidence of Nabendra Nath Bysak that he had known Iswar Thakur for a very long time, that Iswar is a priest of Rakhal Bysak (Nabendra's son's father-in-law), a Municipal Commissioner, who according to Respondent No. 1 belongs to the latter's party on the Municipal Board. It has, further, been stated by respondent No. 1, that Rakhal Bysak and his brother Braja Gopal owe money to the firm of respondent No. 1. It is, therefore, clear to us that Iswar would have been the last person to have allowed Jogendra to have watched the alleged incident on the morning of the 19th of November in Iswar's temple-house, which would have been exposing respondent No. 1 and Nabendra. Jogendra, however, tried to explain this by stating that Iswar and he had been together at school. To our minds, the explanation cannot be accepted, in view of the friendly relations between Iswar on one side, and respondent No. 1 and Nabendra Babu on the other.

We have already referred to the allegation that efforts were made to secure some Deputy or Sub-Deputy Magistrates, to be taken to Murali Pal's house, to hear what he had to say. If there be any truth in this, we are unable to understand why, instead of going to some Sub-Deputy Magistrates, respondent No. 2, or Jogendra did not at once go to the District Magistrate, who could have easily furnished him with detectives, totally unknown to anybody.

Considerable stress was laid on the evidence of Nripendra Chandra Ray (petitioner's witness No. 22), it being contended strenuously that he was an independent witness. There is really, however, no force in this contention. To begin with, when we inspected Iswar's house, we tried to ascertain whether the alleged conversation in the verandah of Iswar's temple-house could have been heard by this witness, sitting in the closed verandah on the other side, at a distance of about 15 feet. For this purpose, the Commissioners Mr. Guha and Rai Kamala Nath Das Bahadur carried on a conversation in a natural way in the closed verandah, whilst the President stood in the verandah of the temple-house trying to listen to their conversation, the others—Pleaders and the public—keeping quiet during the time. The President, however, found it difficult to hear the nature of the conversation. Be this as it may, there is another curious fact to be noted by us. Babu Girish Chandra Das (petitioner's witness No. 27), who was admittedly a great friend of respondent No. 2 and was his canvasser, has deposed to having sent for this witness Nripendra, professionally, 4 or 5 days before Nripendra was examined in this case, although Girish Babu and Nripendra had, as admitted by Girish Babu, never visited each other before. Having regard to the latter admission made by Girish Babu, it is very difficult for us to believe that Nripendra was sent for by Girish Babu, to pay a professional visit, and not for anything in connection with this case.

It is, further, admitted by Nripendra that he does not pay any income-tax. We have taken this admission into consideration, not because it could, by itself, be held as a ground for disbelieving the witness, but in conjunction with the other circumstances relating to this witness, to which we have referred, the admission could at least go to show that he is not as independent as was attempted to be urged by the learned Counsel for the petitioner.

Turning next to the credibility or otherwise of petitioner's witness No. 18 Sasanka Mohan Das Gupta, one of the two witnesses examined to corroborate Jogendra, we find that this witness has admittedly known Jogendra ever since his (witness') childhood, and further that the witness's maternal grandfather, who died only on the 27th of November last, and Ananda Babu were admittedly friends. Sasanka Babu has also stated that he wished respondent No. 2 success at the Election. Obviously, therefore, he is very much interested in respondent No. 2. Apart from this, it is difficult for us to believe his absurd statement to the effect that on the afternoon of the 19th of November Murali made a statement, of his own accord, without having been questioned, as soon as the party arrived at Murali's house.

There remains the evidence of Paresh Chandra Das Gupta, the other witness examined to corroborate Jogendra. This witness had also been admittedly a friend of respondent No. 2 for 18 years. It was further admitted by this witness that he had asked some people of his locality and of Ward No. 1 to vote for respondent No. 2, though he was not the latter's canvasser. It is also admitted by this witness that he liked the idea, in the interest of respondent No. 2, of becoming a witness, when asked by Jogendra to accompany the latter to Murali's house on the 19th of November. Paresh Babu, further, admits that otherwise he would not have liked to have mixed himself up in this case, [illegible] also admits that he met the petitioner about a fortnight after the election, but that he did not tell the latter about the incident of the 19th of November, although the petitioner told him that he was thinking of filing an Election Petition. This was, we say the least, strange, and we are unable to accept the explanation attempted to be advanced, [illegible] to the effect that both parties were in a hurry then. [illegible] Paresh and Nabendra were rival candidates—once for certain—at one [illegible] municipal elections, at which Nabendra was successful.

In view, ther[illegible] of the above facts, relating to this witness Paresh, we are unable to [illegible] that he is disinterested, and that his evidence can be safely relied upon.

Rajendra Kumar Bose and Babu Kshitish Chandra Neogi, whose names have transpired as above, were not called by the petitioner. As regards the former, the omission was ascribed to Rajendra Babu's illness. It was also urged by the learned Counsel for the petitioner that, as admittedly Rajendra Babu had once brought a suit against respondent No. 1, both in the latter's capacity as Chairman of the Municipality, and in his private capacity, for damages and for restoration of water-supply, Rajendra would not have been considered an independent witness. We do not, therefore, consider it necessary to comment any further, as regards this omission in respect of Rajendra Babu. No explanation has, however, been offered for the omission to have called Babu Khitish Ch. Neogi, M.L.A., excepting that we were verbally informed that he was attending the session of the Legislative Assembly at Simla. There was no reason, however, for his not having been examined on commission in good time, as the interval allowed between the settlement of the points for determination and the commencement of the enquiry was more than a month.

Sita Nath Karmakar has not been examined either. Possibly, this may be due to the fact that he is admittedly a tenant of the respondent No. 1 in respect of a few rooms at the Calcutta residence (25, Shibtola Street) of respondent No. 1.

We have so far shown how all the witnesses on this point are unreliable. There is also another matter to which we may refer, and that is our inability to understand why such publicity was given by respondent No. 1 or Nabendra, in the matter of the alleged payment under consideration. The verandah of Iswar's temple-house, as we saw at the time of our local inspection, is visible from the public road or lane, and in the ordinary course of affairs we should not have accepted that such a place should be selected for a purpose which was, at any rate, considered improper by some witnesses. We may mention that in that very house there was another shed on the Southern side, part whereof was not visible from the public lane, and that shed could have been easily selected as a more secluded place, to avoid detection. We cannot, therefore, help resisting the inference that the verandah of Iswar's temple-house was selected, as it was visible both from the room, in which Jogendra was said to have hidden himself, to watch the incident, and also from the closed verandah, where Nripendra was said to have been attending on Brindaban's son and daughter. As a matter of fact, we have no hesitation in holding, for the reasons given above, that there was no such incident on the morning of the 19th of November, as was alleged by the petitioner, in the verandah of Iswar's temple-house. Had there been any such incident in that house, we should have decidedly expected to have found specific mention of that house in the Election Petition or in the subsequent petition, filed by the petitioner, furnishing further particulars, as directed by us. It was attempted to be explained that in this subsequent petition, although we had directed further information to be furnished as regards the place at which this incident occurred, it was understood by the learned pleader that the information was required only in respect of the locality. In the Election Petition the locality has been mentioned as Thateri Bazar and Joginagar, and the learned Senior Pleader for the petitioner informed us that he was under the impression that the locality had to be more specifically restricted, and that, therefore, in the subsequent petition the locality was described as Joginagar only. Be this as it may, it was clearly the duty of the petitioner to have mentioned in his Election Petition or, at any rate, in the subsequent petition, as to which house the incident took place in, as, under Rule 33 (2) of the Bengal Electoral Rules, he was bound to furnish "as full a statement as possible" on the subject.

After a very full and anxious consideration, therefore, of the entire evidence with regard to the allegation of payment of Rs. 1,200 or thereabout by Nabendra Nath Bysak, raising point No. 2 for our determination, we have come to the conclusion that there is no truth in this allegation, as it had not been proved by any satisfactory, reliable or convincing evidence.

16. Turning, next, to point No. 3, it arises out of the allegation that Nabendra Nath Bysak, on behalf of respondent No. 1, on the 21st of November last paid a sum of Rs. 300 or thereabout to one Aku Chand (inadvertently described as Chandra in point 3) Bysak of holding No. 2, Goilara Lane (Ward No. III), in order to secure votes of the voters of that ward, as well as of others of the locality. It was further alleged that the above sum was paid for the repairs of the Thakurbari of the holding, and that it was actually spent on such repairs.

The bulk of the evidence adduced by the petitioner in support of the above allegations is unreliable, and there are clear indications that it has been fabricated and prepared for consideration. The witnesses examined, in connection with the point now under consideration, are Nos. 6, 7, 8, 15, 23 and 27.

As regards witness No. 6 Jadab, with whom the money was said by witness Aku Chand to have been deposited on the day after the alleged payment, he does not corroborate Aku. The learned Counsel for the petitioner requested us to declare this witness hostile, but we refused to grant such permission, as the mere fact that witness's nephew was married to Nabendra's daughter, and that, furthermore, Jadab was the son-in-law of Debendra (who, as stated by Nabendra, was the latter's friend) was not sufficient to show that the witness was not deposing to the truth. It was, further, sought to be proved that this witness had made a statement in writing on the 9th March last before the witness No. 27 Babu Girish Chandra Das, pleader. Jadab denied having made this statement, and it appears that his handwriting on Exhibit 2, which was disputed by him in Court, does not resemble that of Exhibit 3. It is true that Girish Babu has stated that Exhibit 3 was written and signed in his presence by Jadab. Girish Babu, however, admitted that the handwriting on Exhibit 2 was not like the ordinary handwriting of Jadab. In the circumstances, therefore, it is difficult for us to come to any definite finding as to whether the handwriting on Exhibit 3 is really that of Jadab. It may be noted here that Exhibit 3 was admitted only for the purpose of comparing the handwriting thereof with that of Exhibit 2, and we cannot, therefore, enter into the merits of that statement, beyond observing that it was admittedly written, at the instance of the petitioner, in presence of Girish Babu, who is admittedly a great friend of respondent No. 2 and was his canvasser, and further looked after his affairs at the Northbrook Hall polling station. It is noteworthy that, according to Girish Babu himself, this statement, Exhibit 3, was left with him, after it had been written, till one or two days before the commencement of this enquiry, when Girish Babu made it over to one of the petitioner's officers.

Witness No. 7 Aku Chand's evidence shows that respondent No. 1 handed over the money to Nabendra, and the latter made it over to the witness. It is significant, however, that neither in the Election Petition nor in the subsequent petition, filed by the petitioner, furnishing further particulars, was there any mention of respondent No. 1 having handed over the money to Nabendra.

Further, in Aku Chand's case also we find a clear indication that his evidence has been procured, for it is admitted by him that on the 29th of December last a written statement was made by him, which was proposed to be sworn to as an affidavit, and that this had been done at the instance of the petitioner.

We may also mention another ground for our not relying on the evidence of Aku Chand, which is to the effect that he is admittedly an undischarged insolvent, has no employment and is sitting idle. No doubt, he has also stated in re-examination that two of his sons worked at a press, but the fact remains that he himself is a man of straw.

The next witness No. 8 Mohendra would depose to having heard of the alleged payment from Aku Chand on the 22nd of November in one Jatindra Nath's baitakkhana where many others of the holding had assembled at the time. This witness also seems to have been procured, for he admittedly swore an affidavit on the 3rd of January last, at the instance of the petitioner. It is noteworthy, however, that he has had the hardihood to state that he himself paid Rs. 2-0-3, the costs of the affidavit.

With regard to witness No. 15, Nanda Lal Bysak, if he is the same person who was said to have been present in Jatindra's baitakkhana on the morning of 22nd November, he does not corroborate Mahendra. Nanda Lal's evidence is to the effect that, as he was coming downstairs, he heard Aku and Mahendra talking in the open space, just underneath the staircase, about the payment by respondent No. 1 of the balance of the costs of repairs of the Thakurbari. This witness, however, added that he did not know why respondent No. 1 had given that money.

The remaining witness on this point is No. 23, Babu Radha Bullub Bysak, a Pleader, who has a share in the holding No. 2, Goailara Lane. Suffice it to say that he does not prove anything.

In our opinion, therefore, the evidence adduced by the petitioner in respect of the point under consideration is extremely unsatisfactory and unreliable, and we, therefore, hold that the allegation giving rise to that point, as to the payment of Rs. 300 or thereabout by Nabendra Nath Bysak, on behalf of respondent No. 1, to Aku Chand, with the object and for the purpose alleged, has not been proved.

17. In connection with points 2 and 3, we may note that both respondent No. 1 and Nabendra Nath Bysak, have, in their evidence, denied the truth of the respective allegations giving rise to those two points. No doubt they are interested witnesses, but on the whole we see no reason for disbelieving them. The discrepancy in the evidence of these two witnesses as to the number of times Nabendra accompanied respondent No. 1 during the latter's visit to Sir Surendra Nath Banerji, in connection with the removal of the three Municipal Commissioners, mentioned by us in another part of this report, is immaterial.

18. We now consider the last point No. 4. It has been raised on the allegation that three persons, named Gour Chandra Das, Radha Raman Das, and Gokhul Chandra Das of Enayetganj (Ward No. VII), paid a sum of Rs. 100, or thereabout on the 21st of November last to Mohim Rishi, Thakur Das Rishi, Jarasindu Rishi and Purna Rishi of Choudhury Bazar of the said ward, to secure their votes for respondent No. 1. The evidence adduced by the petitioner, in support of this allegation, is exceedingly meagre and unreliable. It consists simply of the testimony of two witnesses, named Mon Mohan Rishi, witness No. 1, and Mohim Rishi, witness No. 21 (stated by the learned Counsel for the petitioner to be the same person whose name was mentioned as "Mohini" in the petition, furnishing further particulars as to the names of the payees. With the exception, then, of Mohim, no one of the other payees has been examined by the petitioner, on the ground that they had been gained over by respondent No. 1. It is, however, difficult to say how far the statement in the petition, which is neither verified nor supported by an affidavit, is true. The payment was said to have been made for the purpose of defraying the expenses of "Mohatshob" and Krittan ceremonies, performed by the Rishis. It appears, however, from the evidence of Mohim Rishi that accounts of the "Krittan" expenses were kept and that therein the sum in question had been entered on the [illegible]. Those accounts were not, however, produced.

There is another matter in connection with this point which we should note. It is in the evidence of Monmohan that he and Jarasindhu filed a petition—bearing the date 24th November last—before a Deputy Magistrate in charge of Elections in connection with the alleged payment. We cannot make use of this petition, as it was not eventually proved, Monmohan's signature on it only having been proved on the first day of the enquiry. Monmohan would, however, state that he and Jarasindhu filed this petition of their own accord, but we find it difficult to believe this. Be this as it may, it is admitted by Monmohan that he went to one Satish Babu, a Pleader for respondent No. 2 in connection with the petition, and then went to respondent No. 2, in whose house the petition was written by a Muhammadan chaprasi. Had the petition been filed by Monmohan and Jarasindhu, of their own accord, we should have certainly expected Monmohan to have ascertained what orders were passed on it, but he has stated that he did not know what order was passed.

We may note that, with regard to the alleged payment we are now considering, it was not alleged that it had been made on behalf of respondent No. 1. Respondent No. 1 has, however, examined Gokul and Gour Chandra, who have denied having made the payment in question. Had we been satisfied with the evidence on the petitioner's side, we should have hesitated in believing Gour Chandra and Gokul, as they are connected in some way or other with respondent No. 1. We are not, however, satisfied with the evidence on the petitioner's side, and it is, therefore, unnecessary to comment any further on the testimony of Gour Chandra and Gokul.

For the above reasons, therefore, we hold that the allegation with regard to the payment of Rs. 100 or thereabout to the Rishis by Gour Chandra and the two other persons named already, for the object of securing votes for the respondent No. 1, has not been proved.

19. In conclusion, having regard to our findings noted in this report on the points, in respect of which evidence has been adduced by the petitioner, we are of opinion that the petitioner's Election Petition should be dismissed, and we beg to recommend accordingly to His Excellency the Governor of Bengal.

20. There further remains for us to consider the question of costs which should be paid by the petitioner to respondent No. 1. We have noted in the body of this report that the evidence adduced by the petitioner is not only unreliable and unsatisfactory, but that in many cases it has been procured for pecuniary consideration. In other words, to support the very grave and serious charges against the respondent No. 1, the petitioner had fabricated and manipulated evidence. Bearing this in mind, and further the fact that the enquiry has been a very long and protracted one, we further beg to recommend to His Excellency the Governor of Bengal that the petitioner be directed to pay to the respondent No. 1 Rs. 1,500 as pleaders' fees, and also the costs incurred by the respondent No. 1 in Court and process fees and witnesses' expenses.

21. This report is somewhat lengthy, but this was unavoidable, as we had to deal with a number of serious charges against respondent No. 1, and had to consider carefully the mass of evidence placed before us, as well as the arguments on both sides at the end of the enquiry.

No. 10857A.—The 17th September 1924.—Whereas the Commissioners appointed under rule 36 (2) (a) of the Bengal Electoral Rules to enquire into the petition presented by Maulvi Abdul Hakim Mukhtar against the election of Mr. Altaf Ali to the Bengal Legislative Council have reported to His Excellency the Governor that they have permitted the said Maulvi Abdul Hakim Mukhtar, after application duly made, to withdraw his petition :

Now, therefore, in accordance with the provisions of rule 45 (3) of the said rules, the following report of the said Commissioners is published for general information. His Excellency the Governor is pleased further to order that in accordance with the recommendations of the said Commissioners, the petitioner shall pay to respondent No. 1, Mr. Altaf Ali, Rs. 150 as pleaders' fees and also the costs incurred by the said respondent in court and process fees and witnesses' expenses.

Mr. Altaf Ali ... ... Respondent No. 1.

Report.

This was a petition made by the petitioner, Maulvi Abdul Hakim Mukhtar, for setting aside the election of respondent No. 1, Mr. Altaf Ali, to the Bengal Legislative Council by the Mymensingh East Muhammadan Constituency at the last general election. The petitioner and the two respondents were the rival candidates. The main ground on which this petition was made, was that the election of respondent No. 1 had been secured by corrupt practices and undue influence. The petition was opposed by respondent No. 1. After we had settled the points for determination, the petitioner, on the 23rd of June last, applied to withdraw from the case. A notice of the application for withdrawa was accordingly published, under Rule 39 (3) of the Bengal Electoral Rules, in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 9th of July last. On the 28th of July last the pleaders for the petitioner and the respondent No. 1 were heard, with reference to the application for withdrawal. The main ground on which the withdrawal was prayed for, was that the election petition was defective, inasmuch as the allegation that illegal gratification had been promised by respondent No. 1 to the petitioner was not a fact, as only a proposal to that effect had been made. It was also urged that, owing to the alleged illness of the respondent No. 2, Dr. A. Suhrawardy, the petitioner was unable to secure this respondent's evidence. In our opinion, there was no reason for withholding permission to withdraw, with reference to Rule 39 (4) of the Bengal Electoral Rules, and by our order, dated the 28th of July last, we accordingly granted the application for withdrawal, directing the petitioner to pay to the respondent No. 1 Rs. 150 as pleaders' fees and also the costs incurred by the respondent No. 1 in court and process fees and witnesses' expenses.

We, further, directed that a notice of the withdrawal was to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, under Rule 39 (5) (b) of the rules. That notice was published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 6th of August 1924, and the matter was put up before us to-day. As fourteen days have expired since the publication of that notice, as required under Rule 39 (5) (c) of the rules, and as no one has appeared to be substituted in the place of the petitioner, no further action is necessary on our part. We are, therefore, of opinion that the election petition should accordingly be treated as dismissed, with costs, as noted above, and we beg to recommend accordingly to His Excellency the Governor of Bengal.

M. YUSUF, President.
